

Route map through learning, teaching and assessment

Course: Economics

Level: Advanced Higher

This route map is intended to assist staff in planning and delivering the overall vision for Curriculum for Excellence. It has been developed to signpost the relevant support materials available to assist staff in the planning of learning, teaching and assessment of Advanced Higher Economics.

The vision for the new qualifications is to create assessment opportunities that follow and support learning and teaching. This follows the principles laid out in Building the Curriculum 5 and makes assessment a natural part of learning and teaching.

These support materials are not intended to constrain staff, hence they are neither prescriptive nor exhaustive. They provide suggestions on approaches to learning and teaching that will provide intellectual challenge to learners either in a formal learning environment or through independent learning. Learners will have the opportunity to develop deep learning and acquire high-level skills such as research and analysis through the medium of Advanced Higher Economics. Staff are encouraged to draw on these materials, and existing materials, to develop programmes of learning which are appropriate to the needs of learners within their own context.

The link to Education Scotland's support materials can be found below together with other subject-specific links you may find helpful as you develop programmes of learning for Advanced Higher Economics. These links are followed by a sequential list of the key guidelines, advice and support for Advanced Higher Economics qualifications. This information is intended to support staff in deciding the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and assess learners.

Advanced Higher Economics course content

The main SQA Economics pages are found at <http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/45695.html> with those specifically related to Advanced Higher at <http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/48463.html>. Staff should also regularly check the updates and announcements section of this page.

The course specification can be found at

More detail on course coverage can be found in the Course Support notes.

Further mandatory information on course coverage is found on pages 8-9 of the Course Assessment Specification.

Staff should make learners aware of how added value is being assessed in this course.

Course assessment

At Advanced Higher added value will be assessed in a course assessment. Component one consists of a question paper worth 80 marks. Component 2 consists of a project worth 40 marks. The course will be graded A–D.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/AHCASEconomics.pdf

Question paper

The question paper is worth 80 marks and has three sections.

Section 1 will have 30 marks and will consist of a number of mandatory short-answer questions based on an item of stimulus material. The questions will be drawn from across the Course.

Section 2 will have 25 marks and will consist of a mandatory question based on economic theory.

Section 3 will have 25 marks and will consist of four optional questions. Each question will be based on a current economic issue.

Candidates will answer one question only.

Project

The project is worth 40 marks. The purpose of this project is to address challenge and application by applying skills, knowledge and understanding from across the Course.

The mark allocation for the project will emphasise the assessment of skills.

Guidance on the use of past paper questions can be found at:

Unit assessment

Units are mandatory when taken as part of the Advanced Higher Economics course but they can be taken independently. Unit support notes follow on from the course support notes.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/AHCUSNEconomics.pdf

There are three units. Each individual unit also has an Advanced Higher unit specification which gives details of the outcomes and assessment standards.

National and Global Economic Issues:

Learners must meet all the outcomes and assessment standards, and staff should read the documentation carefully. Evidence should be generated through learning and teaching. Assessment evidence can be drawn from a variety of activities and presented in a variety of formats. All of the evidence does not have to be generated from one activity but can be from several tasks and assessments carried out throughout the course. Learners should have access to resources to complete the assessment task and no time restrictions should be imposed. Staff should use their professional judgment when looking at the assessment evidence and ensure that minimum competency is met. They should undertake quality assurance regularly.

Three different ways of gathering evidence have been suggested by SQA. The most traditional approach is unit by unit. A combined approach links knowledge and understanding from two or more units together. Many staff will move towards the portfolio approach as their confidence grows. Here evidence is gathered from everyday learning using key classroom tasks. Unit assessment support is kept on the SQA Secure website.

Verification

<http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/58448.html>

The verification process is meant to be supportive and not onerous. Internal verification is the process of ensuring standards are applied uniformly and consistently within a school in line with national standards. External verification is the process of ensuring that national standards are maintained consistently across all schools and carried out by SQA.

Prior Verification

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/Prior%20Verification%20Centre%20Guidance%20FINAL.pdf

Staff who devise their own assessments can send them to SQA for prior verification, free of charge. This is only necessary where significant changes have been made to the unit assessment provided by SQA. It gives staff confidence that their proposed assessment is fit for purpose and meets national standards.

Internal Verification

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/InternalVerificationGuideforSQAcentres.pdf

As a matter of course, staff should be quality assuring their assessments by carrying out activities that they have used previously, for example double marking and blind marking. Samples of learners' work should be marked by more than one staff member in a department or in single-person departments an arrangement should be made with another local school.

External Verification

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/Evidence_required_for_verificationevents.pdf

SQA intend that every school will be verified over the first few years. Verification will take place at various points in the year. Twelve samples will be asked for.

Schools must retain the evidence until 31 July of each academic year.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/SQA_Evidence_retention_requirements_A3_table.pdf

Key messages from verification will be put up on the SQA website.

Results Services

<http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/65427.html>

SQA offers two services:

- Exceptional Circumstances Consideration Service (details to be provided to SQA within ten days of the learner sitting the external assessment)
- Post Results Service - this consists of a clerical check and/or a marking review if the centre has concerns about the results of an individual or group.
