The criteria

Introduction

GCSE subject criteria set out the knowledge, understanding, skills and assessment objectives common to all GCSE specifications in a given subject.

They provide the framework within which the awarding organisation creates the detail of the specification.

Aims and learning outcomes

1. GCSE specifications in Geography should encourage learners to be inspired, moved and changed by following a broad, coherent, satisfying and worthwhile course of study and gain an insight into related sectors. They should prepare learners to make informed decisions about further learning opportunities and career choices.
2. GCSE specifications in Geography must enable learners to:
 - actively engage in the process of geography to develop as effective and independent learners, and as critical and reflective thinkers with enquiring minds;
 - develop their knowledge and understanding of geographical concepts and appreciate the relevance of these concepts to our changing world;
 - develop a framework of spatial awareness in which to appreciate the importance of the location of places and environments from local to global;
 - appreciate the differences and similarities between people's views of the world and its environments, societies and cultures;
 - understand the significance of values and attitudes to the development and resolution of issues;
 - develop their responsibilities as global citizens and recognise how they can contribute to a future that is sustainable and inclusive;
 - develop and apply their learning to the real world through fieldwork and other out-of-classroom learning;
 - use geographical skills, appropriate technologies, enquiry and analysis.

Subject content

3. The content of GCSE specifications in Geography must reflect the learning outcomes.
4. GCSE specifications in Geography must allow learners to develop the knowledge, skills and understanding specified below.
5. Specifications must include a rationale for the geographical approach adopted, whether place, issue, theme, people or environment based.
6. GCSE specifications in Geography must require learners to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of:
 - new ideas and approaches to the study of geography in the 21st century;
 - the importance of geographical location;
 - a range of places, at local, regional, national and international scales, selected from the UK, other parts of Europe and other continents, to include places at different levels of development;
 - aspects of physical and human geography, and their associated processes, including relationships between people and environments;
 - current issues of local, national and global importance, including climate change and sustainable development;
 - the importance of fieldwork and out-of-classroom learning;
 - the use of new technologies, including GIS, to assist geographical investigation;
 - geographical concepts and ideas including uneven development and alternative futures;
 - the relevance of geographical studies to their lives and to the real world.
7. GCSE specifications in Geography must require learners to:
 - identify relevant geographical questions and issues, and establish appropriate sequences of investigation incorporating geographical skills, including enquiry skills;

- carry out fieldwork and out-of-classroom learning;
- use new technologies, including GIS, to assist geographical investigation;
- extract and interpret information from a range of sources, including field observations, maps (including Ordnance Survey maps of different scales), drawings, photographs (ground, aerial and satellite imagery), diagrams and tables;
- acquire and use geographical vocabulary;
- communicate in a variety of ways including extended writing and graphical forms;
- make informed geographical decisions;
- describe, analyse and interpret evidence, making decisions, drawing and justifying conclusions, and communicating findings in ways appropriate to the task audience;
- evaluate methods of collecting, presenting and analysing evidence, and the validity and limitations of evidence and conclusions.

Assessment objectives

8. All specifications must require learners to demonstrate their ability to:

	Assessment objectives	Weighting
AO1	Recall, select, and communicate their knowledge and understanding of places, environments and concepts.	30–40%
AO2	Apply their knowledge and understanding in familiar and unfamiliar contexts.	30–40%
AO3	Select and use a variety of skills, techniques and technologies to investigate, analyse and evaluate questions and issues.	30–40%

Scheme of assessment

9. Each scheme of assessment must include assessment of the learner's experience of fieldwork.
10. GCSE specifications in Geography must allocate a weighting of 75 per cent to external assessment and a weighting of 25 per cent to controlled assessment in the overall scheme of assessment.
11. Question papers in Geography must be targeted at either foundation or higher tier.
