the skills required to contribute to the effective governance and success of the school.”.

(7) For regulation 15 substitute—

“15.—(1) Where—

(a) a maintained school has more governors of a particular category than are provided for by the instrument of government for the school, and

(b) the excess is not eliminated by the required number of governors resigning, the number of governors of that category required to eliminate the excess must cease to hold office in accordance with paragraphs (2) to (4).

(2) Foundation governors must cease to hold office such that, in the opinion of those who appointed them under the instrument of government, the foundation governors remaining in office are those best placed to contribute to the effective governance and success of the school and serve the purposes for which foundation governors are appointed.

(3) Governors who are not foundation governors must cease to hold office such that, in the opinion of the governing body, the governors remaining in office are those with the most relevant skills to contribute to the effective governance and success of the school.

(4) In determining which governors should cease to hold office in accordance with paragraph (3)—

(a) the governing body must hold a vote in respect of each category in which there are excess governors;

(b) governors must not vote in respect of their own category; and

(c) no governor ceases to hold office until the votes on all categories are cast.

(5) Any procedure set out in the instrument of government for the removal of excess foundation governors does not apply in the circumstances set out in paragraph (1).”.

(8) In Schedule 1, after paragraph 11 insert—

“12. The governing body may only appoint as a parent governor a person who has, in the opinion of the governing body, the skills required to contribute to the effective governance and success of the school.”.

(12) In Schedule 4—

(a) omit paragraph 2, and

(b) after paragraph 6 insert—

“7.—(1) No person is eligible to be nominated for appointment as a partnership governor unless that person has, in the opinion of the person nominating them, the skills required to contribute to the effective governance and success of the federation.

(2) No person is eligible to be appointed as a partnership governor unless that person has, in the opinion of the governing body, the skills required to contribute to the effective governance and success of the federation.”.

Amendment to the School Governance (Roles, Procedures and Allowances) (England) Regulations 2013

4.—(1) The School Governance (Roles, Procedures and Allowances) (England) Regulations 2013(a) are amended as follows.

(2) In regulation 13(7) for “subject to the exceptions at regulations 14(5), 14(6) and 17(2) of these Regulations” substitute “subject to the exceptions at regulations 14(5), 14(6), 14(6A) and 17(2) of these Regulations”.

(3) After regulation 14(6) insert—

“(6A) No decision to remove excess governors under regulation 15(2) to (4) of the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2012(b) or regulation 22A(2) to (4) of the School Governance (Federations) (England) Regulations 2012(c) has effect unless the matter is specified as an item of business on the agenda for the meeting.”.

(4) For regulation 16, substitute—

“16.—(1) In this regulation and in Schedule 1, “relevant person” means a governor, an associate member, the head teacher (whether or not that person is a governor) or any person appointed as clerk to the governing body or to a committee.

(2) Subject to paragraph (4), where in relation to any matter—

(a) there may be a conflict between the interests of a relevant person and the interests of the governing body,

(b) a fair hearing is required and there is any reasonable doubt about a relevant person’s ability to act impartially, or

(c) a relevant person has a pecuniary interest,

(a) S.I. 2013/1624.
(b) S.I. 2012/1034.
(e) S.I. 2012/1035.
that person, if present at a meeting of the school at which the matter is the subject of consideration, must disclose his or her interest, withdraw from the meeting and not vote on the matter in question.

(3) Nothing in this regulation or Schedule 1 may be construed as precluding—

(a) the governing body, or a committee, from allowing a person who appears to them to be able to give evidence to attend any hearing conducted by them into any matter and to present his or her evidence;

(b) the governing body, or a committee, from hearing representations from a relevant person acting in a capacity other than that of a relevant person; or

(c) a relevant person from entering into a contract with the governing body from which the relevant person is entitled to profit.

(4) A person who is acting as the clerk to a meeting of the school is not required to withdraw from a meeting by this regulation or Schedule 1 unless the person’s appointment to office, remuneration, or disciplinary action against that person is the subject of the consideration, but if this regulation or Schedule 1 would have otherwise required the person to withdraw, that person must not act in any capacity other than that of a clerk.

(5) Where there is any dispute as to whether this regulation or Schedule 1 requires a relevant person to withdraw from a meeting of the school and not vote, that question must be determined by the other governors present at the meeting.

(6) Schedule 1 makes provision about pecuniary interests and other specified conflicts of interest.”

(5) In regulation 25(1), omit the words “and to Schedule 1”.

(6) In paragraphs 1(2), 2(2) and 3(3) of Schedule 1, for “regulation 16(b)” substitute “regulation 16(2)”.

5. After paragraph 9(ba) of Schedule 6 to the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2007(a), insert—

“(bb) subject to a direction of the Secretary of State under section 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008(b);”.

6. After paragraph 13(b) of Schedule 4 to the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2012, insert—

“(ba) subject to a direction of the Secretary of State under section 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008;”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE
(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2012 (“the Constitution Regulations 2012”), the School Governance (Federations) (England) Regulations

(a) S.I. 2007/957.
(b) 2008 c.25.

Regulation 2(1) to (3) amends the Constitution Regulations 2012 so that the Constitution Regulations 2007 and related saving and transitional provisions are fully revoked from 1st September 2015. Regulation 3(1) to (3) makes equivalent amendments to the Federations Regulations 2012.

Regulation 2(4), (5), (7) and (8) amends the Constitution Regulations 2012 to provide that local authority governors, foundation governors, parent governors and partnership governors are only eligible to be appointed where they have the skills required to contribute to the effective governance and success of the school. Regulation 3(5), (6), (10) and (12) amends the Federation Regulations 2012 to make equivalent provision in relation to the appointment of governors on federated governing bodies.

Regulation 2(6) amends the Constitution Regulations 2012 to introduce a new procedure for removing surplus governors. Regulation 3(8) makes an equivalent amendment to the Federations Regulations 2012 in relation to the removal of surplus governors on federated governing bodies.

Regulation 4(3) amends the Roles and Procedures Regulations 2013 to provide that decisions to remove surplus governors will not have effect unless they are specified as an item of business on the agenda for the meeting of the governing body or federated governing body.

Regulations 5 and 6 amend the Constitution Regulations 2007 (until they are fully revoked) and the Constitution Regulations 2012 respectively, so that a person subject to a direction of the Secretary of State under section 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 is disqualified from holding office as a governor of a maintained school.
