Getting help

Service Children's Education (SCE) schools should follow the instructions in the test administration guidance and 2015 key stage 2 'Assessment and reporting arrangements' when administering the tests.

Test materials and stationery items, including marker labels, will be delivered to SCE schools from Tuesday 21 April . If you have ordered modified test materials, you will receive these as part of your delivery.

Please contact SCE HQ directly to confirm receipt of your materials. You should contact them immediately if you have not received your delivery by Friday 1 May.

Specific guidance on dispatching test scripts for marking will be provided in the 'Instructions for the dispatch of test scripts for Service Children's Education (SCE) schools to markers in the United Kingdom'. This document will be included with your test materials and stationery items.

Getting help

If you have any other queries about administering the key stage 2 tests, you can contact the national curriculum assessments helpline.
