what is EMA?

Education Maintenance Allowance (EMA) is a weekly payment of £30 to help 16-19 year olds with the costs of further education. Payment is made every 2 weeks provided you meet your school or college's attendance requirements.

who is this little book for?

For students

- aged 16-19 year old and are staying on at school or college from September 2013 in Northern Ireland

For parents

- we've included a section to help answer questions you may have about EMA.

What if....

I'm already getting EMA?

You won't have to complete another application form.

We will contact you about your future EMA by post.

can I apply?

You could get EMA if all the following apply to you:

- your 16th, 17th, 18th or 19th birthday falls on or between 2 July 2013 and 1 July 2014 and you are continuing in further education from September 2013.

- you meet our nationality and residency rules

If you are a UK citizen who normally lives in the UK you should be eligible for EMA.

- you attend a approved school or college in Northern Ireland

This must be full-time at school or a minimum of 15 guided hours per week at college, studying an eligible course and attending all classes.

Your parents will need to send evidence of their income and any other child dependants in your household.

and your household income is:

- £20,500 or less

or

- between £20,501 and £22,500 and there's at least 1 other young person in your household who qualifies for child benefit, other than you.

What if....

I have received EMA before?

Although there's a maximum number of EMA payments you can get, you might still be eligible this year. We'll contact you soon to let you know if you're still eligible.

You can go to www.nidirect.gov.uk for more information on EMA for continuing students.

What if....

I'm not a UK citizen?

You may still be able to get EMA. You can find out if you meet our nationality and residency rules by checking the guidance notes that accompany the application form.

What if....

I'm not financially dependent on my parents/guardians?

We'll need details of your income, and the income of your partner (if applicable).

You cannot get EMA if you have been approved to receive a Department of Agriculture and Rural Development (DARD) Bursary or a Department for Employment and Learning Further Education Award.

what could I get?

You could get £30 a week. Your eligibility for EMA payments is based on your household income and we'll ask for evidence of this income when you fill out the application form.

Annual household income	Weekly EMA entitlement
£20,500 or less	£30
£22,501 or more	£0

If your household income is between £20,501 and £22,500 you might still qualify for EMA if you have young people, other than you, in your household, see the table below.

Annual household income	EMA weekly payment
Between £20,501 and £22,500 and there's at least 1 other dependent child eligible for child benefit in your household, other than you.	£30
Between £20,501 and £22,500 and there are no other dependent children eligible for child benefit in your household, other than you.	£0

As well as your weekly EMA entitlement, you may also get bonus payments of £100 in January and June.

how can I apply?

Applying for EMA is quick and easy. Just complete and return an EMA application form.

You can get an application from:

- your school or college
- your Education and Library Board
- www.nidirect.gov.uk
- your local Jobs and Benefits Office
- Careers Service Northern Ireland

You can order forms and guides in Braille, large print or audio by emailing us your name and address along with your message about what format you require to brailleandlargefonts@slc.co.uk or you can telephone us on 0141 243 3686.

Please note, the above email address can only deal with requests for alternative formats of forms and guides.

key dates

- 31st October 2013 - To be eligible for backdated payments, to the start of term, you must apply before this date.
- 31st March 2014 - We must receive your application before this date for you to be eligible for EMA in academic year 2013/14.
- 31st August 2014 - You must have completed your application, by sending all information and evidence, before this date for you to be eligible for EMA in academic year 2013/14.

You should return your completed application with all appropriate evidence as soon as possible. If you can't give us the evidence we need straight away, return your form without it. You'll still have to provide evidence and we'll contact you for this.

what happens next?

what's a Learning Agreement?

This is an agreement between you and your school or college. Once you have been approved to receive EMA you will have to go to your school or college to sign the two parts of your Learning Agreement.

Learning Agreement Part 1

This part of the Learning Agreement sets out the responsibilities for you and your school or college in respect of acceptable attendance on your course. You will commit to attending the timetable defined by your school or college and your school or college will confirm to us that you are in attendance.

Learning Agreement Part 2

This part of the Learning Agreement sets out the learning objectives and goals that you must achieve to be eligible for bonus payments.

when will I get paid?

We will pay you every 2 weeks on a Monday. For example, if you are approved to receive EMA and your school or college confirms your attendance, we will pay you £60 every 2 weeks. If Monday is a bank holiday we will pay you on the next working day.

You will not receive EMA payments during term holidays as EMA is not paid when your school or college is closed.

Bonus payments are normally made in January and June.

Before we can make payments:

- you must agree and sign both parts of your Learning Agreement with your school or college; and
- your school or college must tell us you have been in attendance.

If your school confirms to us that you've been in attendance then we may text you to let you know about your EMA payment.

SMS

All EMA payments will be paid directly into a bank or building society account in your name.

If you haven't already got an account set up, you should do so while you apply for EMA.

We can't pay you until you have signed your Learning Agreement and your college has confirmed that you are in attendance!

What if...I want to change my bank or building society details?

You can update your details by calling us on 0845 601 7646.

information for parents

To work out if your son or daughter is entitled to EMA we need to know your household income for tax year 2012-13. We've put together some questions and answers about providing your income details.

What does my son/daughter need to do?

They need to:

- send back the completed form attaching all evidence
- wait for an award letter to be received by post
- sign their Learning Agreement with their school or college
- follow the school or college attendance rules
- check their bank or building society account for EMA payments being made.

Whose income is taken into account?

We take into account the income of the following people the student normally lives with:

- parent(s)
- step-parent(s)
- guardian(s)
- mother's partner or father's partner

We don't take into account the income of adult brothers or sisters or of parents, step-parents or guardians who don't normally live with the student.

What if my income has dropped since tax year 2012-13?

You should complete the application form with your current income details as they are now. However you will need to attach your financial year 2012-13 evidence and up to date evidence of your current financial situation and how this has changed.

What if I don't have any financial evidence for tax year 2012-13?

In cases of self employment, we understand that a confirmed Self Assessment may not be available until later on, in this case we will accept the Self Assessment SA032 form for tax year 2011-12 or a letter from an accountant.

If my son/daughter gets EMA will it affect my benefits?

EMA will not affect any benefits currently paid to your household.

Can my son/daughter's EMA payments be paid to me?

EMA is awarded to the student so payments must be made into the student's bank or building society account. In some exceptional circumstances we would pay EMA into your bank account, and you should contact us to discuss this.

What if there's dependants in the household other than the applicant?

Read the information on page 3.
