Information: timings for November's live webinars about 2017 assessments

We are holding 2 live, interactive webinars on Tuesday 15 November. The webinars offer schools and local authorities the opportunity to put questions about the 2017 tests and assessments to our panel of experts.

The first webinar will start at 12.30pm and will cover key stage 1. The second, covering key stage 2, will start at 3.45pm. Both will last 45 minutes and recordings will be available to download afterwards if you are unable to view the sessions live.

We will provide more detail and information on how to register in October.
