Introduction

About this document

This document is part of a suite of documents which sets out the regulatory requirements for awarding organisations offering GCE qualifications.

We have developed all our requirements for GCE qualifications with the intention that AS and A level qualifications should fulfil the purposes set out in the table below:

A levels	AS qualifications
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ define and assess achievement of the knowledge, skills and understanding which will be needed by students planning to progress to undergraduate study at a UK higher education establishment, particularly (although not only) in the same subject area; ■ set out a robust and internationally comparable post-16 academic course of study to develop that knowledge, skills and understanding; ■ permit UK universities to accurately identify the level of attainment of students; ■ provide a basis for school and college accountability measures at age 18; and ■ provide a benchmark of academic ability for employers. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ provide evidence of students' achievements in a robust and internationally comparable post-16 course of study that is a sub-set of A level content; ■ enable students to broaden the range of subjects they study.

Requirements set out in this document

This document sets out the GCE Qualification Level Conditions. These conditions apply to all reformed AS and A levels – that is, all GCE AS and A level qualifications accredited by Ofqual on or after 26 May 2014.

It sets out our requirements in relation to setting specified levels of attainment for GCE Qualifications – awarding organisations must comply with these requirements under Condition GCE9.1. It also sets out our requirements in relation to specifying deadlines for requesting reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals – awarding organisations must comply with these requirements under Conditions GCE14.3(b), GCE17.3(b) and GCE18.4(b).

With respect to these qualifications, awarding organisations must also comply with:

- our General Conditions of Recognition,¹ which apply to all awarding organisations and qualifications; and
- our GCE Subject Level Conditions;² and
- all relevant Regulatory Documents.³

With respect to all other GCE qualifications, awarding organisations must continue to comply with the General Conditions of Recognition, the Pre-reform GCE Qualification Level Conditions and Requirements,⁴ and the relevant Regulatory Documents.

Revisions to this document

We have revised this document since it was originally published (see Appendix 1 for details), most recently in April 2019.

The April 2019 version of this document replaces all previous versions of GCE Qualification Level Conditions and Requirements with effect from 4pm on 24 April 2019.

- GCE 2.3 An awarding organisation must ensure that all assessments for a GCE Qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, are designed, set, delivered and marked in compliance with its assessment strategy for that qualification.
- GCE 2.4 An awarding organisation must –
- (a) keep under review its assessment strategy for a GCE Qualification, and revise it where necessary, so as to satisfy itself that the assessment strategy meets at all times the requirements of Conditions GCE2.1 and GCE2.2,
 - (b) review its assessment strategy for a GCE Qualification promptly upon receiving a request from Ofqual to do so, and subsequently ensure that its assessment strategy complies with any requirements that Ofqual has communicated to it in writing, and
 - (c) promptly notify Ofqual of any revisions made by it to any assessment strategy.
- GCE 2.5 An awarding organisation must –
- (a) upon receiving a request from Ofqual to do so, demonstrate to Ofqual's satisfaction that it has complied with its assessment strategy for a GCE Qualification in respect of any particular

- (b) give effect to any recommendation that Ofqual may make in respect of its compliance with its assessment strategy.

Condition GCE3 Specified levels of attainment

Condition GCE4 Assessment by Examination

- GCE 4.1 An awarding organisation must ensure that every assessment for a GCE Qualification which it makes available is an Assessment by Examination.
- GCE 4.2 Condition GCE4.1 does not apply in respect of a GCE Qualification where a GCE Subject Level Condition states that its application is excluded in respect of that qualification.

Condition GCE5 Question types

- GCE 5.1 In designing and setting the assessments for a GCE Qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, an awarding organisation must ensure that, taken together, those assessments include questions or tasks which allow Learners to –
- (a) provide extended responses, and
 - (b) demonstrate their ability to draw together different areas of knowledge, skills and/or understanding from across a full course of study for that qualification.
- GCE 5.2 In designing and setting the assessments for a GCE Qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, an awarding organisation must ensure that Learners are appropriately rewarded for providing such responses and demonstrating such an ability.

 - (b) where confirmation of, or changes to, any mark for an assessment has been communicated to a Centre or a Learner in advance of the issue of that result or set of results, no further evidence generated by that Learner will be admissible as part of that assessment, and
 - (c) where any result for a unit has been communicated to a Centre or a Learner in advance of the issue of that result or set of results, no further evidence generated by that Learner will be admissible as part of the assessments for that unit.

Standard setting requirements

Requirements for setting specified levels of attainment for GCE Qualifications

Condition GCE9.1(b) allows us to specify requirements and guidance in relation to the setting of specified levels of attainment for GCE Qualifications.

We set out below our requirements for the purposes of Condition GCE9.1(b).

These requirements apply only to assessments for A level qualifications that are graded A* to E and assessments for AS qualifications that are graded A to E.

For ease of reference, the specified levels of attainment used in GCE Qualifications are referred to below as 'grades'.

Setting specified levels of attainment

1. For AS and A level the two key grade boundaries are:

(a) E/U

(b) A/B

An awarding organisation must set these key grade boundaries for each Component. In doing this, the awarding organisation must have regard to achieving suitable qualification level outcomes.

2. An awarding organisation must set the key grade boundaries for the qualification as a whole using the following method:

(a) The boundary mark for each Component is scaled as necessary to reflect the intended weighting of that Component as detailed in the specification.

(b) The resulting scaled Component boundary marks are added and the result is rounded to the nearest whole number (0.5 rounded up).

3. An awarding organisation must determine the B/C, C/D and D/E qualification grade boundaries arithmetically:

(c) The grade B/C, C/D and D/E boundary marks are calculated by dividing the mark interval between the A/B and E/U boundaries by four.

(d) Where there is a remainder of one, the extra mark is added to the A to B mark interval.

(e) Where there is a remainder of two, one extra mark is added to each of the A to B and B to C mark intervals.

- (f) Where there is a remainder of three, one extra mark is added to each of the A to B, B to C and C to D mark intervals.
4. In respect of A level qualifications, an awarding organisation must set the A*/A boundary using appropriate statistical and technical evidence.
 5. So long as the requirements in Condition E10.1 are met, an awarding organisation may permit a Learner to carry forward his or her mark/moderated mark (scaled as appropriate) for an assessment which is not an Assessment by Examination from a previous attempt at the same qualification awarded by the awarding organisation.

Requirements for key dates

Reviews of marking, moderation, and appeals: requirements for key dates for GCE Qualifications

We set out below the requirements which an awarding organisation must comply with when it specifies deadlines for requesting reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals. These requirements are published under Conditions GCE14.3(b), GCE17.3(b) and GCE18.4(b) and apply to all GCE Qualifications.

Awarding organisations are no longer required to set deadline dates for Learners/Centres to request reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals. In choosing to set any deadlines, an awarding organisation must comply with the requirements set out below and with all other requirements in its Conditions of Recognition.

In particular the requirements set out below must be read and complied with in conjunction with the GCE Qualification Level Conditions (which set out further requirements in relation to an awarding organisation's arrangements).

The requirements set out below align with the GCE Qualification Level Conditions which are in effect. Some relevant GCE Qualification Level Conditions have not yet come into effect and there are currently some transitional provisions in effect. We will keep the requirements set out below under review as any changes are made.

Requirements for key dates for assessments other than assessments which are marked by a Centre⁵

An awarding organisation must ensure that the requirements in the table below are met in each case where the assessment is not marked by a Centre. The table sets out the minimum timeframe within which the awarding organisation must allow a review/appeal to be requested. Provided a review/appeal is allowed to be requested in that timeframe, an awarding organisation is permitted to also provide an 'accelerated service' (for example, where requests for reviews provided by an earlier date will be processed more quickly).

	STAGE	TIMEFRAME REQUIREMENTS
A	Date results are issued.
B	Date by which a request for Marked Assessment Material must be made (where applicable ⁶).	Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage A to make the request

⁵ The footnotes in the table are for information only.

⁶ Under Condition GCE15, it is up to awarding organisations to decide whether to make Marked Assessment Materials available automatically or only on request.

C	Date of receipt of Marked Assessment Material ⁷ .
D	Date by which a request for a review of marking of Marked Assessment Material must be made ⁸ .	Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least four weeks following Stage A to make the request, and where Marked Assessment Materials are required to be provided, Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage C to make the request.
E	Date awarding organisation reports the outcome of the review of marking ⁹ .

H	Date by which a request for Marked Assessment Material must be made (where not previously requested prior to the review of Marked Assessment Material)	Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage G to make the request
I	Date of receipt of Marked Assessment Material.
J	Date by which an appeal of the result of the assessment must be requested ¹¹ .	Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least four weeks following Stage E to make the request, and where reasons for the outcome of the review have been requested (by Stage F, where specified by the awarding organisation), Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage G to request an appeal and where Marked Assessment Materials are required to be provided,

⁷ Under Condition GCE15.3, an awarding organisation's arrangements for making Marked Assessment Material available must allow Learners/Centres a reasonable opportunity to consider whether to request a review of marking.

⁸ Any date which is set must comply with Condition GCE17.3, including complying with the requirements set out in the table.

⁹ Under Condition GCE20, awarding organisations are required to have and take all reasonable steps to meet a target for the time it will take to complete a review.

¹⁰ Under Condition GCE17.7(a), awarding organisations are required to provide reasons for the outcome of the review on request, although they may specify a reasonable deadline for requests. Where Ofqual has published a notice that Condition GCE17.8, awarding organisations will not need to set a date by which reasons for the outcome of the review must be requested.

¹¹ Any date which is set must comply with Condition GCE18.4, including complying with the requirements set out in the table.

		Learner/Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage I to make the request.

Requirements for key dates for assessments which are marked by a Centre¹³

An awarding organisation must ensure that the requirements in the table below are met in each case where the assessment is marked by a Centre. The table sets out the minimum timeframe within which the awarding organisation must allow a review/appeal to be requested. As above, provided a review/appeal is allowed to be requested in that timeframe, an awarding organisation is permitted to also provide an 'accelerated service'.

	STAGE	TIMEFRAME REQUIREMENTS

B	Date by which a request for a review of Moderation must be made ¹⁴ .	Centre making the request must be allowed at least four weeks following Stage A to make the request.
C	Date awarding organisation reports the outcome of the review of Moderation ¹⁵ .
D	Date awarding organisation provides reasons for the outcome of the review ¹⁶ .
E	Date by which an appeal of the outcome of Moderation must be requested ¹⁷ .	Centre making the request must be allowed at least four weeks following Stage C to make the request, and Centre making the request must be allowed at least two weeks following Stage D to make the request.

¹² Under Condition GCE20, awarding organisations are required to have and take all reasonable steps to meet a target for the time it will take to complete an appeal.

¹³ The footnotes in the table are for information only.

¹⁴ Any date which is set must comply with Condition GCE14.3, including complying with the requirements set out in the table.

¹⁵ Under Condition GCE20, awarding organisations are required to have and take all reasonable steps to meet a target for the time it will take to complete a review.

¹⁶ Under Condition GCE20, awarding organisations are required to have and take all reasonable steps to meet a target for the time it will take to complete a review and provide reasons.

¹⁷ Any date which is set must comply with Condition GCE18.4, including complying with the requirements set out in the table.
