

Student Wellbeing ESCalate Funded Project

What are the options available to Education students experiencing stress, depression or just feeling overwhelmed?

Where can a student go for support in the university?

Or during their school experience?

Is there anything that might deter a student from seeking help when it is needed?

How do you think that the provision of support could be improved?

We are interested in hearing your views and experiences.

Please go to <http://studentwellbeing.pbworks.com> to tell us. When commenting, please tell us whether you are a member of staff or a student.

To contribute to the discussion you simply need to create an account with pbworks. This requires you only to give a username and your email address and for you to devise your own password. It's quick, easy and free!

Jan Huyton and Lalage Sanders are about to start an ESCalate funded project the aim of which is to gather information to help improve the provision of support to Education students across the UK. More information about the project and the researchers can be found at <http://studentwellbeing.pbworks.com>.

<http://studentwellbeing.pbworks.com>