

Democratic Learning Conversations

A two part conference on staff-student collaborative enquiry and assessment feedback in higher education

HOSTED BY STAFF AND STUDENTS AT DE MONTFORT UNIVERSITY, THIS ONE DAY CONFERENCE OFFERS THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLORE STAFF-STUDENT ENQUIRY AND ASSESSMENT FEEDBACK THROUGH THE LENS OF COLLABORATION AND DEMOCRACY.

De Montfort University
Friday 16th December 2011
9.30am – 4.00pm

PART ONE: What's the value of collaborative enquiry? Exploring the benefits and challenges of staff-student collaboration

PART TWO: Making marking meaningful: Quality and collaboration in assessment feedback

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

- Michael Fielding (Institute of Education) - 'Beyond Student Voice: Patterns of partnership and the demands of deep democracy'

To book online, please visit the DMU online store at <https://store.dmu.ac.uk/>

Attendance is £50 academic staff, £10 students, free to students and staff at DMU or institutions that participated in the project. Booking deadline = 30 November 2011

For further information please contact Will Curtis (wcurtis@dmu.ac.uk) 0116 2078680