Teacher training incentives in Wales for PGCE (FE) students – academic year 2013/14

Audience	Cardiff University, Glyndŵr University and University of South Wales.
Overview	Guidance for use by providers offering full-time pre-service courses of PGCE (FE) initial teacher training leading to a qualification to teach further education in the academic year 2013/14 (i.e. Cardiff University, Glyndŵr University and University of South Wales) ('PGCE (FE) ITT providers') in administering, assessing eligibility and the methodology for calculating grant payments.
Action required	Action is required by initial teacher training providers to ensure that they are familiar with the guidance and with the relevant legislation. Providers are required to organise grant payments to eligible students on qualifying initial teacher training courses in accordance with this guidance and to provide forms and information as set out here.

Summary

The Welsh Ministers have powers under sections 14-17 of the Education Act 2002 to provide financial assistance, or to make arrangements for the giving of financial assistance, to any person for or in connection with the enabling any person to receive any training for teachers or for non-teaching staff; or for the promotion of the recruitment or retention of teachers or non-teaching staff.

This guidance covers teacher training incentive grants available for eligible students who start full time pre-service PGCE (FE) initial teacher training courses leading to a qualification to teach further education ("PGCE (FE) incentives"). It applies in relation to eligible students in Wales who start such courses between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014.

The guidance is issued by the Welsh Ministers and provides information on PGCE (FE) incentives and outlines the funding available, grant eligibility and how payments will be made. It does not cover every aspect; full information on eligibility and conditions are set out below. These guidance notes should be read as a whole for confirmation of grant eligibility.

This guidance does not cover incentives offered on initial teacher training courses which lead to Qualified Teacher Status.

1. Overview

1.1 This section offers a brief overview of the PGCE (FE) incentives for courses starting between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014. It does not cover every aspect; full information on eligibility and conditions are set out in sections 2-7 of this guidance.

1.2 The PGCE (FE) incentives are grants available to eligible persons to undertake specified postgraduate further education initial teacher training courses in Wales. Courses must start between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014, and be full time pre-service PGCE (FE) initial teacher training courses leading to a qualification to teach further education.

1.3 Subject to eligibility, students on courses outlined in paragraph 1.2 may be able to receive PGCE (FE) incentives of up to £3,000 (for those studying in specified subjects in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM related subjects), Welsh and Life Skills of Literacy and Numeracy) or £1,000 (for those studying in all other subjects).

1.4 No grant will be paid to a person unless they have made an application to the Welsh Ministers, care of the Welsh Government, in the approved format. Students must be asked by their PGCE (FE) ITT provider to complete the relevant forms.

2. Eligibility for PGCE (FE) incentives

2.1 PGCE (FE) incentives are available to students who satisfy the eligibility criteria in paragraph 2.2, starting full-time pre-service postgraduate initial teacher training courses in specified subjects at further education level with a higher education institution (university or associated college) in Wales between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014. The incentives will be up to £3,000 (for those studying in specified subjects listed in paragraph 2.3) or up to £1,000 (for those studying in all other subjects).

2.2 To be eligible for a PGCE (FE) incentive, students:-

- (a) must on entry to the course hold a first degree<sup>1</sup> of a United Kingdom higher education institution or equivalent qualification;
- (b) must qualify for support under regulations made under section 22 of the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 currently in force as they apply to the course<sup>2</sup>; and
- (c) must not be in any of the following categories of persons who are not entitled to receive the training grant: -
  - (i) students who completed a course of initial teacher training at further education level before 1 September 2013;
  - (ii) students taking a non-postgraduate Certificate in Education (FE);
  - (iii) PGCE (FE) students who do not hold a degree on starting the course;
  - (iv) PGCE (FE) students who study on in-service courses;
  - (v) PGCE (FE) students who study part-time;
  - (vi) anyone who already holds Qualified Teacher Status; or
  - (vii) anyone employed to teach at any further education college or other education institution in any capacity.

2.3 The specified subjects referred to in paragraph 2.1 above are as follows:-

Mathematics subjects:

Applied Mathematics

General Mathematics

Mathematics and mechanics

Mathematics and statistics

Pure Mathematics

Statistics

3. Payment of PGCE (FE) incentives

3.1 The PGCE (FE) incentive of up to £3,000 will be paid in nine monthly instalments in or around the last week of the month in respect of the period October 2013 to June 2014. The payments from October 2013 to May 2014 inclusive will be £300 and the final payment in June 2014 will be £600.

3.2 The PGCE (FE) incentive of up to £1,000 will be paid in nine monthly instalments in or around the last week of the month in respect of the period October 2013 and June 2014. The payments from October 2013 to May 2014 will be £100 and the final payment in June 2014 will be £200.

3.3 Note: for the purposes of paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2, save for the month of June, the “last week” of each month is the week which includes the last working day of that month. The “last week” in June will be the week which includes the last working day of June or, if earlier, the week the course finishes.

3.4 Individuals who are eligible for a PGCE (FE) incentive and join a course which is already underway or leave a course before its completion will only be entitled to the monthly payments which fall due for payment while they are undertaking the course. Payments for part-completed months will not be made.

3.5 If someone is otherwise eligible to receive a PGCE (FE) incentive, but has also received some or all of a PGCE (FE) incentive under this or any previous scheme in Wales prior to 1 September 2013 (or received at any time any amount of any grant payable in respect of equivalent schemes in England), the payment of PGCE (FE) incentive to which they are entitled will be reduced by the amount of previous grant payments received.

3.6 PGCE (FE) incentives for students resuming a course that they have left will be paid at the lower rate (if any) of the training grant rate that applied in the academic year that the student left the course or the training grant rate that applies in the academic year the student rejoins the course, unless the Welsh Ministers agree otherwise in writing. PGCE (FE) incentives for students starting a course where entry has been deferred will be paid at the PGCE (FE) incentive rate (if any) which applies in the academic year a student rejoins/joins the course, unless the Welsh Ministers agree otherwise in writing.

3.7 If a student has been on long-term sick leave or has suspended their studies but resumes their course between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014 to complete the time they have missed, they will be eligible for funding for the period from resumption to the completion of the course. This is subject to the provisions of paragraph 3.6, and to the total payments not exceeding the sums set out in paragraph 3.1 or paragraph 3.2, as relevant to the subject being studied.

4. When the payments should be made

4.1 The payments should be made in the last week of each month they are due. It is for PGCE (FE) ITT providers to decide the exact dates of payment, bearing in mind the definition of the “last week” of each month at paragraph 3.3 above.

4.2 Payments should only be made to those students who are attending the course on the day of payment. If any student has left a course prior to that date, or is on long-term sick leave, payment should not be made. If the Welsh Government has already passed funding to the PGCE (FE) ITT provider for a grant payment to any student who subsequently leaves a course before the payment is made, the Welsh Government will adjust subsequent payments.

5. How the PGCE (FE) incentives should be paid

5.1 Eligible students will receive the grant from their PGCE (FE) ITT provider, who will receive funding from the Welsh Government for the number of students on their course.

5.2 At the start of their courses, students should be asked to sign a declaration form to enable them to claim their grant (on “Form TTFE/2B 2013/14”). The form at annex 2B should be used for this purpose. It should be noted that this form includes an item in the declaration which asks the student to confirm that they have read the information notes “PGCE (FE) Teacher Training Incentives Grants – Academic Year 2013/14: Information for Students” – a copy of this is at annex 1.

5.3 PGCE (FE) ITT providers must ensure that all eligible students receive a copy of those information notes, and in sufficient time to read them before they are asked to sign the Form TTFE/2B 2013/14.

5.4 If you need advice to determine whether a student is an eligible student who qualifies for support under regulations made under section 22 of the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 currently in force as they apply to their course, please check with the student’s local authority rather than the Welsh Government. This can be a complex area and the local authority is best placed to assess the position.

5.5 We are content for PGCE (FE) ITT providers to determine the most suitable arrangements for making payments to students providing that there is a clear audit trail which ensures it can be demonstrated that particular students actually received the payments from the PGCE (FE) ITT provider.

6. How funding for the PGCE (FE) incentives will be passed to PGCE (FE) ITT providers

6.1 Each month in the academic year from October 2013 to June 2014, each PGCE (FE) ITT provider must provide the Welsh Government with lists of the names and numbers of the students on each of their PGCE (FE) courses on Form TTFE/2D 2013/14 (copy at annex 2D). Students who have left the course since the previous month's list was sent should be indicated clearly on the form. These lists should be sent with the payment claim and declaration form TTFE 2013/14 (Copy at Annex 2E) under cover of a letter from the PGCE (FE) ITT Provider, signed by one of the authorised signatories, requesting payment of the appropriate amount to cover the grants.

6.2 The first month's lists on Form TTFE/2D 2013/14 need to be sent to the Welsh Government together with a copy of the completed Forms TTFE/2B 2013/14 for each student listed. These should be sent under cover of the provider's declaration Form TTFE/2C 2013/14 (copy at annex 2C).

6.3 Forms TTFE/2C 2013/14, TTFE/2D 2013/14 and TTFE/2E 2013/14 must be signed by an authorised signatory from the PGCE (FE) ITT provider. Form TTFE/2A 2013/14 (copy at annex 2A) is a form for the PGCE (FE) ITT provider to supply us with up to three authorised signatories for the payments. These are the only people who will be able to sign the claim for payment from the PGCE (FE) ITT provider. We will need these forms to be returned to us before any payment may be made and by no later than 31 October 2013.

6.4 The Welsh Government will make monthly payments between October 2013 and June 2014 to PGCE (FE) ITT providers directly into the providers' bank accounts to enable them to make payments to the eligible students. Paragraph 5 of Annex 2 sets out the timetable for submitting claims to the Welsh Government to ensure that we are able to make the payments before they are due to the student.

6.5 During the year the Welsh Government will liaise with the PGCE (FE) ITT providers to identify students who leave the course prematurely to ensure any relevant adjustments are made to payments.

6.6 A copy of the detailed guidance including claim and payment timetables is included at Annex 2.

7. Funding to cover PGCE (FE) ITT providers' administration costs

7.1 PGCE (FE) ITT providers will be entitled to a flat rate payment for October 2013 and June 2014 from the Welsh Government, equalling 2% of the total amount of PGCE (FE) incentives payable, towards their administrative costs.

7.2 This will be paid along with the training grants at the end of the month they are due. This sum should be included within the total payment requested each month.

7.3 Where refunds of grant have to be remitted to the Welsh Government the associated administrative costs payment should also be refunded.

8. Recovery of PGCE (FE) incentives paid

8.1 The Welsh Ministers have powers to recover PGCE (FE) incentives paid, in whole or in part. They have discretion about whether to exercise those powers and will consider all cases on their merits. Once payments have been made into a student's bank account any decision to recover should be referred to the Welsh Government before any action is taken.

8.2 These powers may be exercised by the Welsh Ministers will be where:-

- (a) after receiving any instalment of PGCE (FE) incentive, the recipient fails to meet any eligibility criteria adopted by the Welsh Government in relation to a subsequent instalment; or
- (b) the recipient has provided in, or in connection with, his or her application for a PGCE (FE) incentive, information which is false or materially misleading; or
- (c) there is firm evidence that the recipient had never intended to complete the course or, having completed it, to enter teaching.

8.3 In relation to paragraph 8.2(a), we are aware of the practical difficulties of stopping payments around the time when you are trying to determine if a trainee has either withdrawn from the course or when you are deciding whether to terminate their training programme. Providing that clarification that a trainee has withdrawn from a course is received, or a decision is made to terminate a programme, within 5 working days before the date of a payment, we will not require you to recover payments made to trainees under the provisions of paragraph 8.2(a). This will not preclude recovery if the circumstances in paragraphs 8.2(b) or (c) apply.

8.4 Notwithstanding paragraph 8.3, PGCE (FE) ITT providers should take all steps necessary to put a stop on future payments immediately once clarification that a trainee has withdrawn from a course is received, or a decision has been reached that a programme should be terminated.

Annex 1: PGCE (FE) teacher training incentive grants – academic year 2013/14: information for students

1. Eligibility

Who is eligible?

1.1 Students are eligible for a PGCE (FE) teacher training incentive grant (“PGCE (FE) incentive”) if they satisfy the eligibility criteria in paragraphs 1.2 and 1.3, and are starting full-time pre-service postgraduate initial teacher training courses at further education level with a higher education institution (university or associated college) in Wales between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014.

1.2 Students must, on entry to the course, hold a first degree of a United Kingdom higher education institution or equivalent qualification. (Note: a “first degree” does not include a foundation degree. A foundation degree is a university-level qualification in its own right, equivalent to the first two years of an honours degree.)

1.3 Students must also qualify for support under regulations made under section 22 of the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 currently in force as they apply to the course. The regulations which currently apply the provision of support to students in relation to the academic year running from 1 September 2013 to 31 August 2014 are the Education (Student Support) (Wales) Regulations 2012 (S.I. 2012/3097 (W313)). The Education (European Institutions) and Student Support Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/765 (W91)).

Who is not eligible?

1.4 As well as students who do not satisfy the eligibility requirements set out in paragraphs 1.1 - 1.3, the following are not eligible to receive a PGCE (FE) incentive:-

- (a) students who completed a course of initial teacher training at further education level before 1 September 2013;
- (b) students taking a non-postgraduate Certificate in Education (FE);
- (c) PGCE (FE) students who do not hold a degree on starting the course;
- (d) PGCE (FE) students who study on in-service courses;
- (e) PGCE (FE) students who study part-time;
- (f) anyone who already holds Qualified Teacher Status; or
- (g) anyone employed to teach at any further education college or other education institution in any capacity.

What about students starting a PGCE (FE) course in September 2014?

1.5 The PGCE (FE) incentives described here only apply to eligible students starting a qualifying course on or after 1 September 2013 but no later than 31 August 2014. If any funding were to be made available in future years, it would be announced separately and no assumption should be made about any future funding unless it was specifically confirmed.

Are there upper or lower age limits for applicants?

1.6 No.

What if the provider (university or associated college) requires eligible students to attend a further education institution before initial teacher training formally begins?

1.7 Provided that the course formally starts on or after 1 September 2013 but no later than 31 August 2014, they will be eligible for the training grant.

2. Financial Details

How much will eligible students receive?

2.1 The PGCE (FE) incentives for eligible students will be up to £3,000 (for those on courses outlined in paragraph 1.2 studying in specified subjects listed in paragraph 1.5) or up to £1,000 (for those on courses outlined in paragraph 1.2 studying in all other subjects).

2.2 The specified subjects referred to in paragraph 2.1 above are as follows:-

What payments will be made, and when?

2.3 Those entitled to the PGCE (FE) incentive of up to £3,000 in respect of academic year 2013/14 will be paid in nine monthly instalments in or around the last week of each month in respect of October 2013 to June 2014. The payments from October 2013 to May 2014 inclusive will be £300 in each instance. The final payment in June 2014 will be £600.

2.4 Those entitled to the PGCE (FE) incentive of up to £1,000 in respect of academic year 2013/14 will be paid in nine monthly instalments in or around the last week of each month in respect of October 2013 to June 2014. The payments from October 2013 to May 2014 inclusive will be £100 in each instance. The final payment in June 2014 will be £200.

2.5 (Note: for the purposes of paragraphs 2.3 and 2.4, save for the month of June, the “last week” of the month is the week which includes the last working day of that month. The “last week” in June will be the week which includes the last working day of June or, if earlier, the week the course finishes.)

How will payments be made?

2.6 Through the PGCE (FE) initial teacher training provider (university or associated college). The institution will claim the payments from the Welsh Government.

2.7 At the start of their courses, students will be asked to sign a declaration form to enable them to claim their PGCE (FE) incentive (on “Form TTFE/2B 2013/14”). It should be noted that this form includes an item in the declaration which asks the student to confirm that they have read these information notes.

Can students claim more than a £3,000 or £1,000 PGCE (FE) incentive if their course is extended into a further year?

2.8 No, depending on the course the PGCE (FE) incentives are a maximum of £3,000 or £1,000.

3. Issues for trainees who leave or re-start a course

What about people who join a course which is already underway or drop out of training?

3.1 Individuals who are eligible for a PGCE (FE) incentive and join a course which is already underway or leave a course before its completion will only be entitled to the payments that fall due for payment in respect of the period they are on the training course.

What about people who cease training but subsequently resume their studies?

3.2 PGCE (FE) incentives for students resuming a course that they have left will be paid at the lower rate (if any) of the training grant rate that applied in the academic year that the student left the course or the training grant rate that applies in the academic year the student rejoins the course, unless the Welsh Ministers agree otherwise in writing. Providers are requested to seek further advice from the Welsh Government in respect of students that fall into this category and to make no commitments in respect of the continuation of any further grant payments without prior Welsh Government approval.

3.3 PGCE (FE) incentives for students starting a course where entry has been deferred will be paid at the PGCE (FE) incentive rate (if any) which applies in the academic year a student rejoins/joins the course, unless the Welsh Ministers agree otherwise in writing.

3.4 If a student has been on long-term sick leave or has suspended their studies but resumes their course between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014 to complete the time they have missed, they will be eligible for funding for the period from resumption to the completion of the course. This is subject to the provisions of paragraphs 3.2 and 3.3, and to the total payments not exceeding the sums set out in paragraph 2.1, relevant to the course in question.

What about people who have previously received a PGCE(FE) incentive?

3.5 If someone who has previously received a PGCE (FE) incentive prior to 1 September 2013 under this or any previous scheme in Wales, or has received at any time any amount of any grant payable in respect of equivalent schemes in England, starts or re-enters a course, any PGCE (FE) incentive for that course for which they may be eligible will be reduced by the amount of previous grant they have already received. For example, an eligible student who had attended a one-year PGCE (FE) full-time course in 2010/11, and received the first six monthly instalments before leaving the course, would on re-entering initial teacher training in 2013/14 (and still meeting the eligibility requirements) only be entitled to receive the balance of the sum due in two equal instalment payments at course commencement and completion.

What about people who previously dropped out of part-time postgraduate initial teacher training at further education level before August 2013 and want to start again on the full-time course from September 2013?

3.6 Part-time courses completed or left before August 2013 do not affect eligibility for a PGCE (FE) incentive between 1 September 2013 and 31 August 2014.

4. Related Financial Queries

Are there any circumstances where I might have to repay the PGCE (FE) incentive?

4.1 The Welsh Ministers have powers to recover PGCE (FE) incentive paid, in whole or in part. They have discretion about whether to exercise those powers and will consider all cases on their merits.

4.2 These powers may be exercised by the Welsh Ministers will be where:-

- (a) after receiving any instalment of PGCE (FE) incentive, the recipient fails to meet any eligibility criteria adopted by the Welsh Ministers in relation to a subsequent instalment; or
- (b) the recipient has provided in, or in connection with, his or her application for a grant, information which is false or materially misleading; or
- (c) there is firm evidence that the recipient had never intended to complete the course or, having completed it, to enter teaching.

Is the PGCE (FE) incentive taxable?

4.3 Our understanding is that the PGCE (FE) incentive is not taxable for full-time students. For part-timers, the salary may be taxable, depending on your total taxable income for the financial year. However, students should seek advice from HM Revenue and Customs about their individual position.

What will be the effect of the PGCE (FE) incentive on other student support?

4.4 For other student finance provisions based on household income, a PGCE (FE) incentive is not considered as part of your income, and should not be included when working out your taxable unearned income.

What will be the effect of the PGCE (FE) incentive on benefits?

4.5 You should seek advice from the Department for Work and Pensions on your individual position.

Will the PGCE (FE) incentive trigger loan repayments?

4.6 Not while you are in full-time training. Loan repayments may be triggered when you are earning a salary.

1. Information to be provided to School Standards and Delivery Division, Welsh Government

1.1 To ensure the simple administration of the PGCE (FE) incentives, a contact point from each PGCE (FE) ITT providers should be provided to the School Standards and Delivery Division of the Welsh Government. This Division will issue the relevant forms for the scheme and will act as a contact point for payment-related enquiries.

1.2 For 2013/14, payment claim forms must be signed by an authorised signatory from the PGCE (FE) ITT provider. Form TTFE/2A 2013/14 at Annex 2A is a form for the PGCE (FE) ITT provider to supply us with up to three authorised signatories for the payments. These are the only people who will be able to sign the claim for payment from the PGCE (FE) ITT provider. We will need these forms to be returned to School Standards and Delivery Division before any payment may be made, and by no later than 31 October 2013.

1.3 Having determined the eligibility of all students on postgraduate further education courses (advice on eligibility is included in section 2 of the guidance notes “Teacher training incentives in Wales for PGCE (FE) students - academic year 2013/14”), PGCE (FE) ITT providers should prepare a list of eligible students using Form TTFE/2D 2013/14 at Annex 2D. This form requests details of surname, first name(s) and student number. A separate list should be completed for each course.

1.4 PGCE (FE) ITT providers should send copies of the Form TTFE/2D 2013/14 forms, together with copies of all completed Form TTFE/2B 2013/14 forms (see paragraph 4.2 below), to School Standards and Delivery Division under cover of Form TTFE/2C 2013/14 at Annex C, signed by the authorised signatory. PGCE (FE) ITT providers should send these to School Standards and Delivery Division by 31 October 2013.

2. How to claim the funding for the PGCE (FE) incentives from the Welsh Government

2.1 At the specified intervals, by the date specified on the timetable provided, send Form TTFE/2E 2013/14 at Annex E, together with updated Form TTFE/2D showing the full list of eligible students who are currently on the course, under cover of an official letter requesting payment of the appropriate amount to cover the PGCE (FE) incentives due plus a payment equal to 2% of the PGCE (FE) incentives due in respect of administration costs.

2.2 Any student who leaves the course after they have received the first payment should be indicated by crossing their name through on Form TTFE/2D forms in red. Please insert the date the student left the course not only on the first month's sheet but on every subsequent list.

2.3 Form TTFE/2E 2013/14 includes lines for 'adjustments plus' or 'adjustments minus'. PGCE (FE) ITT providers should enter here any amounts they are repaying or any additional monies they are reclaiming. The covering letter should note which students these relate to and the reasons for the adjustment (for example, to repay monies that were claimed in error).

3. How the funding for the PGCE (FE) incentives will be passed to PGCE (FE) ITT providers

3.1 The Welsh Government will pass funding to the PGCE (FE) ITT provider by the date indicated on the timetable in section 5. This will be paid directly into the PGCE (FE) ITT provider's bank account.

4. How to pay the PGCE (FE) incentives to eligible students

4.1 A copy of the information note "PGCE (FE) teacher training incentive grants – academic year 2013/14: information for students" (see Annex 1) should be given to each student. PGCE (FE) ITT providers must ensure that all eligible students receive a copy of those guidance notes, and in sufficient time to read it before they are asked to sign Form TTFE/2B 2013/14 (see paragraph 4.2).

4.2 Before the first payment is made, training providers should ensure the completion of the claim form TTFE/2B 2013/14 at Annex 2B for each of their eligible students. It should be noted that this form includes an item in the declaration which asks the student to confirm that they have read the "PGCE (FE) Teacher Training Incentive Grant – Academic Year 2013/14: Information for Students".

4.3 Advise students of a common date for the payment of the PGCE (FE) incentive. Only those students on the course on the day of payment will be eligible to receive payment. If any student leaves the course prior to that date, payment should not be made. If the Welsh Government has already passed funding to the PGCE (FE) ITT provider for the PGCE (FE) incentive to any student who leaves the course before the payment is made, the Welsh Government will adjust subsequent payments (including the associated administrative costs payment).

4.4 Each PGCE (FE) ITT provider will be required to supply School Standards and Delivery Division with an audit certificate signed by the provider’s auditors. The format for this certificate is at Annex 2F. This will provide the Welsh Government with assurance that the funding has been used for the purpose provided, and that the appropriate number of students have been on the course for the appropriate period. This form must be signed by the PGCE (FE) ITT provider’s external auditors – forms signed by the PGCE (FE) ITT provider’s internal auditor will not be accepted.

4.5 The Welsh Government or an authorised representative may also require access to the records relevant to these grants and the checks that have been completed to ensure that they are valid.

4.6 Claiming funding to cover payments of PGCE (FE) incentives and a payment in respect of administration costs commits the PGCE (FE) ITT provider to the conditions set out in this guidance.

5. Timetable for the Payment of PGCE (FE) incentives

Payment month	Training providers to send lists of eligible students and a claim for payment to Welsh Government by this date:	Welsh Government to have paid the instalment of the PGCE (FE) incentives into PGCE (FE) ITT providers’ bank accounts by this date:	PGCE (FE) ITT providers to pay instalment of the PGCE (FE) incentives to students during this week:
