Applied General qualifications counting in the 2016 performance tables

This list provides an update to the list of Applied General qualifications that was published in December 2013. It confirms final decisions for qualifications previously listed as 'pending qualifications' and applies to courses taught from September 2014. Two qualifications have been added to the list since December, and these are indicated in bold.

All qualifications listed below have been approved for inclusion in the 2016 16-19 School and College Performance Tables (to be published in early 2017). Qualifications that previously had 'pending' status, but are not included on this list will not count in the 2016 performance tables.

Applied General qualifications are level 3 (advanced) qualifications that provide broad study of a vocational area. They are recognised by at least three Higher Education Institutions<sup>1</sup> as fulfilling entry requirements to a range of HE courses, either in their own right or alongside other level 3 qualifications. Some employers and professional/trade bodies have also pledged support for Applied General qualifications.

To help students and parents decide which vocational qualifications best meet their learning needs and aspirations, this list provides links which for each qualification, direct the reader to:

- a statement summarising the purpose of the Applied General qualification and the courses it could lead to; and
- letters of support from Higher Education Institutions, and in some cases from industry.

Please note: this information was correct on 31st March 2014 but is held on external websites for which the Department for Education is not responsible. Please report any omissions to: vq.reform@education.gsi.gov.uk

Applied General qualifications do not count towards the new TechBacc (Technical Baccalaureate) measure as they do not equip a student with specialist knowledge and skills.

From 2016, 16-19 Performance Tables will report academic, Tech Level and Applied General qualifications separately. This will help parents and students make meaningful judgements about schools and colleges that offer different kinds of courses.

Schools and colleges may offer qualifications that are not included in the performance tables, if approved for teaching to 16-19 year olds, and in all cases should act as they judge to be in the best interests of their students.

<sup>1</sup> 'Higher Education Institutions' refer to universities and Further Education colleges funded by the Higher Education Funding Council for England to provide higher education, research and related activities.
