Corrections to the published “Summer GCSE and IGCSE entries for England: Provisional figures April 2014”

Appendix, Table 1

In England, the total number of entries for 2014 (and breakdown) in History changed from 242,980 to 241,940 as the former included ancient history qualification entries.

In England, the total number of entries (and breakdown) in classical subjects changed for 2013 from 21,195 to 16,930 and for 2014 from 15,429 to 16,469. This was due to the inclusion of entries from IGCSEs in 2013 and the absence of ancient history entries in 2014.

In England, the total number of entries (and breakdown) in other modern languages changed for 2013 from 29,591 to 32,017 and for 2014 from 31,275 to 31,219. This was due to the fact that Chinese was not included in the original figures and that some entry figures were amended.

In Northern Ireland, the total number of entries for 2014 (and breakdown) in English changed from 20,523 to 3,113 and the total number of entries for English language changed from 3,069 to 20,479. This was due to a subject labelling error.
