

Route map through learning, teaching and assessment

Course: Politics

Level: Higher

This route map is intended to assist staff in planning and delivering the overall vision for Curriculum for Excellence. It has been developed to signpost the relevant support materials available to assist staff in the planning of learning, teaching and assessment of Higher Politics.

The vision for the new qualifications is to create assessment opportunities that follow and support learning and teaching. This follows the principles laid out in Building the Curriculum 5 and makes assessment a natural part of learning and teaching.

Education Scotland has published support materials to help staff develop programmes of learning drawn from three sources: course materials commissioned by Education Scotland, other support materials produced by staff seconded to Education Scotland and course materials provided by staff through their education authorities. Further materials will be added as they become available.

These support materials are not intended to constrain staff, hence they are neither prescriptive nor exhaustive. They provide suggestions on approaches to learning and teaching that will promote development of the necessary knowledge, understanding and skills for Higher Politics. Staff are encouraged to draw on these materials, and existing materials, to develop their own programmes of learning which are appropriate to the needs of learners within their own context.

The link to Education Scotland's support materials can be found below together with a number of other subject-specific links you may find helpful as you develop programmes of learning for Higher Politics. These links are followed by a sequential list of the key guidelines, advice and support for the Higher Politics qualification. This information is intended to support staff in deciding the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and assess learners.

Higher Politics course content

The main SQA Politics page is found at <http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/46445.html>. Pages specifically relating to Higher are at <http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/47925.html>. Staff should also regularly check the updates and announcements section of this page.

The course specification can be found at:

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/CfE_CourseSpecification_Higher_SocialStudies_Politics.pdf.

There are three units: Political Parties and Elections, Political Theories and Political Systems.

Political Parties and Elections: In this unit, learners will analyse a range of electoral data to evaluate factors that contribute to the electoral performance of UK political parties. They will draw on knowledge and understanding of the complex factors that contribute to the electoral performance of UK political parties.

Political Theories: In this unit, learners will use a range of sources of information to evaluate different political ideologies and political concepts. They will draw on theoretical and conceptual knowledge and understanding of political ideologies and political concepts.

Political Systems: In this unit, learners will use a range of sources of information to compare different political systems. They will draw on knowledge and understanding of different political systems.

More detail on course coverage can be found in the course support notes.

Further mandatory information on course coverage is found on pages 8–9 of the course assessment specification. This breaks each unit down into sections and topics.

A course comparison of current and new Higher is also available.

Course assessment

At Higher, added value will be assessed in a course assessment which consists of a question paper and an assignment. The course will be graded A–D.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/CfE_CourseAssessSpec_Higher_SocialStudies_Politics.pdf

Question paper

There will be a question paper for Higher Politics worth 60 marks, which will be carried out under exam conditions and marked by SQA. It will test knowledge, understanding and skills, with greater emphasis on knowledge and understanding. The paper will have three sections, each worth 20 marks.

A specimen question paper and marking scheme can be found at:

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/PoliticsSQPH.pdf.

Assignment

The purpose of this assignment is to allow learners to demonstrate challenge and application. The assignment will provide learners with an opportunity to use ICT and political skills, knowledge and understanding to demonstrate investigative, analytical and decision-making ability while undertaking a context-based assignment. The assignment will have 30 marks and learners will have an open choice of political issue. It will be conducted under a high degree of supervision and control.

Unit assessment

Units are mandatory when taken as part of the Higher Politics course but they can be taken independently. Unit support notes follow on from the course support notes.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/CfE_CourseUnitSupportNotes_Higher_SocialStudies_Politics.pdf

Each individual unit also has a Higher unit specification.

Each unit specification gives details of the outcomes and assessment standards. There are two outcomes per unit.

Political Parties and Elections

Political Theory

Political Systems

Learners must meet all the outcomes and assessment standards, and staff should read the documentation carefully. Evidence should be generated through learning and teaching. Assessment evidence can be drawn from a variety of activities and presented in a variety of formats. All of the evidence does not have to be generated from one activity but can be from several tasks and assessments carried out throughout the course. Learners should have access to resources to complete the assessment task and no time restrictions should be imposed. Staff should use their professional judgment when looking at the assessment evidence and ensure that minimum competency is met. They should undertake quality assurance regularly.

Three different ways of gathering evidence have been suggested by SQA. The most traditional approach is unit-by-unit. A combined approach links knowledge and understanding from two units together. Many staff will move towards the portfolio approach as their confidence grows. Here evidence is gathered from everyday learning using key classroom tasks. Unit assessment support is kept on the SQA Secure website.

Verification

The verification process is designed to be supportive and not onerous.

Internal verification is the process of ensuring standards are applied uniformly and consistently within a school in line with national standards. External verification is the process of ensuring that national standards are maintained consistently across all schools and is carried out by SQA.

Information on quality assurance is available at <http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/58448.html>.

Prior verification

http://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/Prior%20Verification%20Centre%20Guidance%20FINAL.pdf

Staff who devise their own assessments can send them to SQA for prior verification, free of charge. This is only necessary where significant changes have been made to the unit assessment provided. It gives departments confidence that their proposed assessment is fit for purpose and meets national standards.

Internal verification

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/InternalVerificationGuideforSQAcentres.pdf

As a matter of course staff should be internally verifying their assessments by carrying out the types of activities they have used previously. For example a sample of learners' work should be marked by more than one staff member in a department, and in single-person departments an arrangement should be made with another local authority school.

External verification

www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/66846.html

In politics, schools will submit a sample of learners' evidence for scrutiny by subject-specialist qualification verifiers. SQA intend that every school will be verified over the first few years. Verification will take place in November, February and May. Twelve samples will be asked for.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/Evidence_required_for_verificationevents.pdf

Schools must retain the evidence until 31 July in each academic year.

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/SQA_Evidence_retention_requirements_A3_table.pdf

Key messages from verification will be put up on the SQA website.

Results services

http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/files_ccc/FA6669_SQA_Results_Services_A5_8pp_brochure_web.pdf

<http://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/65427.html>

SQA offer two services to replace the appeals process:

- Exceptional Circumstances Consideration Service (details to be provided to SQA within ten days of the learner sitting the external assessment)
- Post-results Service – this consists of a clerical check and/or a marking review if the centre has concerns about the results of an individual or group.
