Families' experiences and behaviour in the Childcare Affordability Pilots (CAP09)Discussion Guide – Final draft (26/01/10)*ACTUAL COSTS GROUP*Objectives:

The overarching objective of this research is to understand the importance of the affordability of childcare, relative to other factors, in parents' decisions about whether to move into, and remain in, work and childcare.

This study also evaluates the Actual Costs Pilot, among the 2009-10 cohort, focusing on customers' experiences and behaviour under another method of payment, but where the total level of support is the same.¹

Specific objectives are as follows:

- To explore customers' reasons for taking up the new system of support;
- To explore whether a system based on actual costs means that customers can cope better with seasonal variations in childcare costs (relative to the current tax credits system), and to gain a greater understanding of how parents' costs vary throughout the year, and the reasons for this;
- To explore whether reporting costs incurred at the end of each month is easier for customers than having to calculate their average costs over the course of a year;
- To explore whether paying childcare separately from the rest of the award makes it easier for customers to understand how the support they receive relates to the costs they incur;
- To explore customers' experiences and perceptions of calling HMRC every four weeks to report their childcare costs, and whether increased contact with the tax credits system results in a better customer experience;
- To explore how customers find a system where they receive support largely in arrears;
- To explore perceptions and experiences of the transition payment and of the facility to draw forward payments from future months.

Outline of the research programme:

- 45 in-depth interviews with customers who have taken up the offer of a special package of help towards childcare costs, allowing them to report the childcare costs on a four-weekly basis and receive payment in arrears that relates directly to this.
- 25 in-depth interviews with customers from the control group, who have taken up the offer of a system of help being offered by the Government whereby up to 80% of the childcare costs they pay will be covered if they are already in work or move into work for at least 16 hours per week. This is the basis of childcare support in the current tax credits system.
- We will conduct paired-depth interviews with couples where appropriate;

¹ The CAP09 pilots and evaluation were scaled back following the 2010 election and some components of the evaluation were removed, for example, research with some groups of families.

- All interviews will be held in London and the South East between 28th January and 12th March 2010
- Each interview/depth to last between an hour and an hour and a half

What is written here is a guide only – but the information provided here should set the tone for the rest of the interviews and indicate how the questions should be phrased (i.e. whether they are currently in or out of work). Try to avoid the use of technical language – unless the participant uses it themselves – and explain terms clearly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Thank participant for taking part ● Introduce self, Ipsos MORI ● Emphasise that we will be talking about their experiences of finding work and childcare and, specifically, their experiences of reporting their childcare costs to HMRC on a four-weekly basis. ● Confidentiality: reassure all responses anonymous and that information about individuals will not be passed on to anyone, including HMRC or any other Government Department ● Explain outline of the research ● Role of Ipsos MORI – independent research organisation (i.e. independent of GOVERNMENT), gather all opinions: all opinions valid ● Get permission to digitally record – transcribe for quotes, no detailed attribution PILOT RECRUITMENT CHECK: I believe you have recently taken up the offer of help towards childcare costs, allowing you to report the childcare costs on a four-weekly basis. However, please do not mention the alternative method of payment to participants from either the pilot or control groups. Some interviewees (from the pilot group) will only have experienced the pilot system and it would be confusing for them to find out now that there is a system of averaging in place for other claimants. It is in the terms and conditions of the pilot but it is likely some have not read / absorbed this. At this stage, do not try to explain the averaging system to interviewees. MODERATOR NOTE: This will already have been checked at the recruitment stage. However, mentioning it at this stage will aid recollection of the letter prior to asking about it in the following section.

Up to 10 minutes	3. Using and paying for childcare I'd like to talk about the different childcare providers that you currently use. MODERATOR TO GIVE SHOWCARD B OF CHILDCARE PROVIDERS TO PARTICIPANT Which of the different kinds of childcare provider(s) shown on this card do you use now? When do you use them? PROBE: Ascertain all the different sources used, when they use them. MODERATOR NOTE: If the participant has used a family member as childcare, please probe to find out which family member: the child's grandparent(s); the child's older brother/sister; another relative And which of these childcare providers do you claim financial assistance from HMRC for? PROBE FULLY. And of these providers, can you tell me a bit about how you found out about them? "Formal" childcare refers to the childcare that the participant is able to claim financial assistance from HMRC for. These types of childcare will have an official Ofsted number.

If this is the case, check to confirm. PROBE: How easy do you find it to get to your workplace and the places where you use childcare? What kind of transport do you use? And overall, how easy or difficult do you find it to balance work and childcare? PROBE: Why do you say this? What are the challenges you face when doing this? How do you meet these? PROBE: Does your current childcare provision have enough flexibility (e.g. for times when you work fewer or more? Ascertain whether they have informal systems of support in place they can rely on when needed. MODERATOR NOTE: Please look at the issue above carefully, particularly if the participant has irregular working hours. How do you pay for your formal childcare? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Do you pay on a weekly, monthly or quarterly basis? PROBE FULLY – Particularly if the participant uses a variety of childcare providers, we need to see if they pay different providers on a different basis, - How do you pay for your formal childcare? PROBE FOR CASH, CHEQUE, DIRECT DEBIT ETC. - How does this differ from how you receive the financial assistance from HMRC to pay for your formal childcare? PROBE – See how easy/difficult it is for them to make a payment based on the cash cheque they receive currently. - How, if at all, do you currently budget for these costs? PROBE: Do you have a separate pot of money from which you pay for your childcare costs (e.g. one partner’s income, a certain benefit) or do these get paid alongside the rest of the household bills? 	We will also look at this issue later in the guide – so no need to go into too much detail here of BACs versus cash cheque.

	MODERATOR NOTE: Aim to get an understanding of the extent to which participants currently plan and budget for their childcare costs.
Up to 20 minutes	4. Coping with seasonal variations in childcare costs I'd now like to talk in a bit more detail about any childcare you anticipate using over the coming year. Can you talk me through the types of childcare you expect to use each month, and for roughly how many hours (a week?) you expect to use each type of childcare? PLOT THIS ON A DIARY – SO WE HAVE A CHILDCARE EQUIVALENT OF THE EMPLOYMENT CALENDAR. MAKE SURE WE END UP WITH THE FULL FORWARD PICTURE OVER THE YEAR FOR EACH CHILD. NO NEED TO GO INTO COST DETAIL – WE JUST NEED TO SEE HOW THINGS WILL CHANGE. Do you expect your use of childcare to vary at all throughout the year? Why? PROBE: Look at whether they expect to have seasonal variations in childcare costs – this will be particularly relevant where there are children of school age in the household. PROBE: Will these variations be to formal or informal arrangements? REFER BACK TO SHOWCARD IF NEEDED. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - IF APPLICABLE: How do you think these variations will fit in with your working hours? PROBE: Do you think you will need to change your working hours to fit around your childcare arrangements? IF YES: Can you talk me through why you think this might happen? - Are there any times during the coming year when you think you might find it difficult to make suitable childcare arrangements? Why do you say this? PROBE: To what extent is this based on prior experience? To what extent do you expect the cost of your childcare arrangements to change during the course of the year? PROBE: Are these formal or informal childcare costs? REFER BACK TO SHOWCARD IF NEEDED.	This section will explore participants' childcare arrangement expectations over the coming year and will examine how they envisage dealing with any seasonal variations. It will also look at if and how they may track of any seasonal variations in cost over the 12 months they'll be on the pilot. May have different answers for different individual children. Please record all. MODERATOR NOTE: This is an area of particular interest for HMRC and something that we will refer back to in wave 2 of the research. Please probe fully and gain as much detail as possible on participants' expectations.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What are the main reasons for these anticipated changes? PROBE: School holidays, changes to working hours, changes to partner’s working hours, poor fit between childcare provider and their working arrangement. - How do you think you will manage to cover these costs? - Are there any months when you think you will struggle to cover the cost of childcare? Why is this? - PILOT ONLY: To what extent do you think the way in which HMRC calculates and provides payment towards your childcare costs will help you during these months? - CONTROL ONLY: Is there anything that HMRC could do to make it easier for you to manage during these months? Have you been keeping track of how much you have spent on childcare? PROBE: Does the participant have a clear system for keeping track of costs? PROBE: If participant has a system for keeping track of their childcare costs, find out how this system was developed – had the participant had any formal childcare arrangements prior to receiving assistance from HMRC. If yes, how easy or difficult has it been to keep track of your childcare costs? Why do you say that? PROBE: To what extent do seasonal differences make it difficult to keep track of costs? How about any previous experience of paying for childcare – how far has this influenced how you keep track of your costs? And do you intend to keep track of your costs over the next year? If yes, how? PROBE FULLY Do you expect your childcare costs to fluctuate? When do you think you’ll be paying more? Why do you say this? And when do you think you’ll be paying less? Why do you say this? How easy or difficult do you expect monitoring your costs to be? Why do you say that?	NOTE TO MODERATOR: Probe fully to ascertain how they plan to keep track of childcare costs over the next year. We will look at differences between the control and pilot groups in our analysis.

mins	I'd now like to talk a bit more about your decision to take up HMRC's offer of assistance towards the cost of childcare. SHOW INITIAL INVITATION LETTER Do you remember receiving this letter? ALL PARTICIPANTS SHOULD HAVE RECEIVED THIS LETTER FROM HMRC. IF THEY DO NOT RECALL IT, CHECK HOW THEY FIRST FOUND OUT ABOUT HMRC'S OFFER OF ASSISTANCE (e.g. through the outbound reminder calls from Spoken For) AND ADAPT THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS ACCORDINGLY. IF YES: Prior to receiving the letter, were you aware that you could get help towards the cost of childcare as part of Working Tax Credit? IF YES: How did you know about this? PROBE: Explore the importance of formal and informal networks in their information gathering. Why had you not applied for this assistance in the past? MODERATOR NOTE: They may have claimed in the past – they just had to not be claiming it at the time of the pilot. Were you aware of any other kinds of help and support available to you with regard to childcare? PROBE: Look at whether they aware of Sure Start, Lone Parent Advisors (if applicable) and so on. Could you tell me in your own words what you understood this letter was trying to tell you? PROBE FULLY TO ASCERTAIN THE EXTENT TO WHICH CUSTOMERS UNDERSTOOD WHAT THE PACKAGE OF HELP BEING OFFERED TO THEM WAS To what extent did you understand how much you would be able to claim? PROBE: How did you feel about this? Did you think it would be enough to cover your childcare costs? Why did you think this? PROBE: (Where appropriate): Did anyone else help you read or understand the letter? Who?	taking up the new system – what attracted them to it initially. It will also look at pilot participants' early experiences of reporting their childcare costs to HMRC and overall understanding of the need to report changes in circumstances. Moderator note: the original letter was not from HMRC, it was from DCSF, as were the reminder letters. Would be better just to show them to letter we are talking about each time for this section.

	What did you do with this letter when you received it? PROBE: Did you read it straight away or put it to one side to read at a later date? Did you show it to anyone else or talk about it with someone? If a couple, did they mention it or seriously discuss it? IF YES: Who did you show it to / discuss it with? CHECK WHETHER PARTICIPANT CALLED THE HELPLINE UPON RECEIPT OF THIS LETTER. IF PARTICIPANT CALLED THE HELPLINE INITIALLY: Was there anything in particular in this letter that prompted you to call the helpline? Why do you say that? What were your main reasons for expressing an interest in the offer? PROBE FULLY: Not previously aware of assistance available, keen to return/remain in employment, new system will make it easier to cover childcare costs on an ongoing basis, whether the offer just happened to arrive when they were moving into work / taking up formal childcare anyway And did you have any reservations about doing so? PROBE FULLY: Lack of suitable childcare, not all costs are covered, payment not taking account of seasonal differences in childcare (CONTROL ONLY), potential problems with reporting costs on a regular basis (PILOT ONLY), potential problems with receiving payment in arrears (PILOT ONLY). Did you change anything about the way you looked for a job after receiving the letter from DCSF? Or after you had contacted the helpline? PROBE: See if the participant did anything to find a job more quickly, or if they made different decisions about what kind of work they would be happy to do after receiving information about the pilot. IF PARTICIPANT DID NOT CALL THE HELPLINE INITIALLY, BUT WAS CONTACTED BY THEM AT A LATER DATE: Why did you not call the helpline when you first received the letter from HMRC? PROBE: Concern about eligibility, concern about finding work or moving	MODERATOR NOTE: Note that there are two types of calls made to claimants (as opposed to claimants calling in). One is the 'outbound' call,

How long was it after you received the initial letter? - How did you feel about receiving this call? PROBE: Did participant feel they were being chased? Or did the call act as a useful reminder? - What information were you given during this call? Was any of the information different to that contained in the initial letter? In what way? - What was it that prompted you to accept the offer of assistance? - To what extent did the helpline staff clearly explain the terms of the offer to you? How far did this have an effect on your thinking about whether or not to take it up? PROBE: Did the participant take up the offer as a result of the call, or were they considering the offer anyway? Had they found work in the period between receiving the letter and the follow-up call? Did you change anything about the way you looked for a job after receiving the letter from DCSF? How did you find this – too infrequent/too often? What else would’ve been helpful? When you found work, what steps did you then take? Please use your judgement and adapt the questions to suit the circumstances of the original. Careful probing here will help us understand the differences in views between the two helplines. MODERATOR NOTE: The participant’s initial contact will be with the Childcare Affordability Pilot Helpline. This is run by SpokenFor – though participants are unlikely to know it by this name. Once they have been recruited onto the pilot/control scheme, they are passed to the Tax Credits Office. However, they may not be aware of the distinction between the two helplines – it may just appear as one office they talk to about tax credits. It is not necessary to explore participants’ understanding of this distinction but please keep it in mind as it is possible that participants will mention the change of helpline. PLEASE NOTE: Participants are passed over

On pilot they will

How have you received the payments – what form has the money taken? PROBE – Ask them if they have received cash cheques. And how has this affected how you pay for the childcare you use? PROBE – ask whether using a cash cheque has made it easy/difficult and why. What impact would being paid differently have? PROBE – What about if you were paid by BACs? Why do you say this? How much contact have you had with HMRC since making your initial claim? Families' experiences and behaviour in the Childcare Affordability Pilots (CAP09)Discussion Guide – FINAL (13/10/10)*ACTUAL COSTS PILOT, NON TAKE-UP GROUP*Objectives:

The overarching objective of this research is to understand the importance of the affordability of childcare, relative to other factors, in parents' decisions about whether to move into, and remain in, work and childcare. The Non Take-Up group specifically evaluates reasons for families not joining the Actual Costs Pilot.²

Specific objectives are as follows:

- Explore how childcare is currently used – the mix of formal and informal care and attitudes towards each
- Understanding of budgeting approach, how variations in costs are dealt with, how payments are made and attitude towards the offer of variable payment;
- To explore how customers understand how the support they receive relates to the costs they incur
- To explore customers' experiences and perceptions of contacting HMRC and whether a potential increase in contact played a role in not taking up the offer; and
- Attitudes towards using formal childcare and what cost, quality and choice restrictions there are on the childcare that is available.

Outline of the research programme:

- 50 in-depth interviews with customers who have been offered, and not taken up a special package of help towards childcare costs, allowing them to report the childcare costs on a four-weekly basis and receive payment in arrears.
- Thus, all interviews are with those who have taken up the offer of a system of help being offered by the Government whereby up to 80% of the childcare costs they pay will be covered if they are already in work or move into work for at least 16 hours per week. This is the basis of childcare support in the current tax credits system.
- We will conduct paired-depth interviews with couples where possible;
- All interviews will be held in London and the South East between 18th October and 24th December 2010
- Each interview/depth to last between an hour and an hour and a half
- There are 5 separate groups of participants, based on the amount of contact they had with HMRC and the interest they showed in the offer. Some questions in the guide are specific to these groups and such questions are highlighted throughout this guide. These groups are defined as follows:

² The CAP09 pilots and evaluation were scaled back following the 2010 election and some components of the evaluation were removed, for example, research with some groups of families.

Group 1: Received the offer letter but were never in contact with Spoken For Group 2: Responded to offer letter and had contact with Spoken For but did not register interest
Group 3: Responded to offer letter to register interest, but were not contacted for activation in May/June
Group 4: Responded to offer letter to register interest, at least one attempt was made (by TCO or Spoken For) made to contact them for activation in May/June but did not get through.
Group 5: Responded to the offer letter, registered interest and successfully contacted for activation but declined

Using this guide

We use several conventions to explain to you how this guide will be used. These are described below:

Timings	Questions	Notes and Prompts
5 mins	Underlined = Title: This provides a heading for a sub-section Bold = Question or read out statement: Questions that will be asked to the participant if relevant. Not all questions are asked during fieldwork based on the moderator’s view of progress. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Bullet = prompt: Prompts are not questions – they are there to provide guidance to the moderator if required. 	This area is used to summarise what we are discussing, provides informative notes, and some key prompts for the moderator
How long it takes	Typically, the researcher will ask questions and use the prompts to guide where necessary. Not all questions or prompts will necessarily be used in an interview

Timings	Key Questions	Notes and Prompts
5 mins	1. Welcome and introduction NOTE: Use the introduction to gauge the register that should be used in the interviews. What is written here is a guide only – but the information provided here should set the tone for the rest of the interviews and indicate how the questions should be phrased (i.e. whether they are currently in or out of work). Try to avoid the use of technical language – unless the participant uses it themselves – and explain terms clearly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thank participant for taking part • Introduce self, Ipsos MORI • Emphasise that we will be talking about their experiences of working and childcare and, specifically, their experiences of estimating the cost of and budgeting for formal childcare • Confidentiality: reassure all responses anonymous and that information about individuals will not be passed on to anyone, including HMRC or any other Government Department • Explain outline of the research • Role of Ipsos MORI – independent research organisation (i.e. independent of GOVERNMENT), gather all opinions: all opinions valid • Get permission to digitally record – transcribe for quotes, no detailed attribution RECRUITMENT CHECK: I believe you currently claim tax credits or other benefits that help with paying childcare costs for your child/ren? However, mentioning it at this stage will aid recollection of the letter prior to asking about it in the following section. MODERATOR NOTE: As well as acting as a lead in to the rest of the interview to make the participant(s) comfortable, this section

Up to 5 minutes	2. Employment history Firstly, can you describe any work that you do at the moment? IF APPLICABLE: And what work is your partner currently doing? MODERATOR NOTE: If conducting a paired depth, check current work status of both participants. Also, ask about nature of partner’s work, how long they have been in that role, skill level, sector, location, temporary/permanent etc. IF WORKING: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What kind of work are you currently doing? IF TEMPORARY OR CASUAL: How long do you expect to be doing this job? What do you expect to do after that? Timings	Key Questions	Notes and Prompts
	How long did it take you to find work/increase your hours? PROBE: Ask about the number of positions applied for, how easy it was for them to find suitable vacancies, was word-of-mouth a factor, whether they turned down any successful applications, and why (especially was it because it couldn't fit with the childcare they could arrange?).
Up to 10 minutes	3. Using and paying for childcare I'd like to talk about the different childcare providers that you currently use. MODERATOR TO GIVE SHOWCARD B OF CHILDCARE PROVIDERS TO PARTICIPANT Which of the different kinds of childcare provider(s) shown on this card do you use now? When do you use them? PROBE: Ascertain all the different sources used, when they use them, how long they have been used for and any changes over time. MODERATOR NOTE: If the participant has used a family member as childcare, please probe to find out which family member: the child's grandparent(s); the child's older brother/sister; another relative And which of these childcare providers do you claim financial assistance from HMRC for? PROBE FULLY. And of these providers, can you tell me a bit about how you found out about them? PROBE: Examine where they got the information from and the importance of each of the sources.	This section will explore participants' current childcare arrangements in more detail. MODERATOR NOTE: The participant may have different answers for different individual children – please record all their responses. We might expect childcare to be relatively stable as they've been claiming for it for a while. But if there have been changes to this, we would want to know why. Therefore, please probe around whether or not childcare arrangements are long-standing.

What was it that made you choose the childcare provider(s) that you did? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To what extent was cost a consideration in choosing a childcare provider? - And how important was flexibility (for example, the availability of childcare over school holidays, the requirement to continue paying for childcare over school holidays (when it might not be needed) and/or the availability of extra childcare, possibly at short notice? - And location? - To what extent do you use or have you used more than one childcare provider? Why is that? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o PROBE ON: is this due to moving to a new area, dissatisfaction with the childcare provider, one provider isn't available at all times, lack of flexibility I would now just like to get a sense of how all your childcare and work arrangements fit together, so I can understand better how you manage them. I'd like to try and draw a map of where you work and where the childcare you use is. ASK PARTICIPANT FOR STREETNAMES AND POSTCODES OF THEIR WORKPLACE AND ALL TYPES OF FORMAL AND INFORMAL CHILDCARE USED. Note: details of these locations may have been described earlier in the interview. If this is the case, check to confirm. PROBE: How easy do you find it to get to your workplace and the places where you use childcare? What kind of transport do you use? And overall, how easy or difficult do you find it to balance work and childcare? PROBE: Why do you say this? PROBE: Does your current childcare provision have enough flexibility (e.g. for times when you work fewer hours or more? Ascertain whether they have informal systems of support in place they can rely on when needed.	MODERATOR NOTE: Please ensure that participant is referring to formal childcare arrangements only. "Formal" childcare refers to the childcare that the participant is able to claim financial assistance from HMRC for. These types of childcare will have an official Ofsted number.

- PROBE ON: whether or not this has ever been problematic

Were you aware that the offer of a different payment method from HMRC included a loan of up to £500 to help cover any initial payments?

- PROBE ON: Would this have been helpful?
- Why not? PROBE: See if the participant was concerned about owing money to HMRC at a later date, and why.

Were you aware that the offer also provided you with the chance to draw forward payments for future months if you expected your childcare costs to increase?

- How were you made aware of this?

Do you think this facility to draw forward payments for future months would have been useful to you?

- Why do you say this? How helpful could it be?
- What advantages would a system like this have?
- Would you have any reservations about doing this? PROBE: would you have any concerns about overpayment and having to pay back if you were given too much money?

To what extent do you feel that the help provided through Tax Credits – where you receive 80% of the cost of your formal childcare – is sufficient to allow you to use formal childcare?

- What, if any, sort of restrictions does this help place on what childcare you can or cannot afford? Has it influenced which childcare you use, and how?

Special help with your childcare costs

The Government is offering 2000 families across London and the South East of England a special package of help towards childcare costs – and it's available to you. This package is a change to the usual childcare support you get as part of your tax credits and will give you the increased support you need, when you need it. This should help you budget better.

Here are the details. From May 2010 the Government can make its childcare payments to you so that they change as your childcare costs change – for instance, more money when your costs are higher, like over school holidays. We can even give you money up-front when your costs go up and you will still get up to 80% of the childcare costs you pay. There is a limit which means the most you can get is:

- £140 a week for one child
- £240 a week for two or more children

So don't delay. To register your interest and find out more about this extra help call our FREE dedicated helpline on 0800 030 4422 (please give the reference number at the top of this letter when you call).

When you call our helpline, you'll be given further information on this package.

If English is not your first language we can provide a translation service and if you are hearing impaired we can offer this service via Tynetalk.

Yours sincerely,

David Fitzgerald, Deputy Director – Childcare
