1. Flexible learning fund – regional workshops

Information

The Education and Training Foundation (ETF) are hosting 9 free regional workshops for adult education providers and employers interested in applying to the flexible learning fund.

The £10m flexible learning fund, part of the government's commitment to explore new approaches to lifelong learning for adults, is open until midnight 31 January 2018 for applications.

The workshops will focus on how to put together a successful application, including opportunities for partnerships between providers and employers. You can find details of the workshops on the ETF website.
