Introduction

About this document

This document is part of a suite of documents which sets out the regulatory requirements for awarding organisations offering GCSE qualifications (graded from 9 to 1).

We have developed these requirements with the intention that GCSE qualifications (graded from 9 to 1) should fulfil the following purposes:

- To provide evidence of students' achievements against demanding and fulfilling content;
- To provide a strong foundation for further academic and vocational study and for employment; and
- To provide (if required) a basis for schools and colleges to be held accountable for the performance of all of their students.

Requirements set out in this document

This document sets out the GCSE Qualification Level Conditions. These conditions apply to all GCSE qualifications (graded from 9 to 1).

It sets out our requirements in relation to setting specified levels of attainment for GCSE qualifications (graded from 9 to 1) – awarding organisations must comply with these requirements under Condition GCSE9.1. It also sets out our requirements in relation to specifying deadlines for requesting reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals – awarding organisations must comply with these requirements under Conditions GCSE14.3(b), GCSE17.3(b) and GCSE18.4(b).

With respect to these qualifications, awarding organisations must also comply with:

- our General Conditions of Recognition, which apply to all awarding organisations and qualifications
- the relevant GCSE Subject Level Conditions, including those which apply to qualifications taken by Learners in 2022
- all relevant Regulatory Documents

Revisions to this document

We have revised this document since it was originally published (see Appendix 1 for details), most recently in November 2021.

The November 2021 version of this document replaces all previous versions of GCSE (9 to 1) Qualification Level Conditions and Requirements with effect from 09:30 on 12 November 2021.

Qualification Level Conditions

GCSE Qualification Level Conditions

Condition GCSE1: Assessing the full range of abilities

GCSE1.1

In designing and setting an assessment for a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, an awarding organisation must ensure that the assessment allows each specified level of attainment set out in the specification to be reached by a Learner who has attained the required level of knowledge, skills and understanding.

GCSE1.2

Condition GCSE1.1 does not apply in respect of a GCSE Qualification where a GCSE Subject Level Condition states that its application is excluded in respect of that qualification.

Condition GCSE2: Assessment strategies

GCSE2.1

In respect of each GCSE Qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, an awarding organisation must –

- (a) establish and maintain an assessment strategy for that qualification,
- (b) ensure that the assessment strategy complies with any requirements which may be published by Ofqual and revised from time to time, and
- (c) have regard to any guidance in relation to assessment strategies which may be published by Ofqual and revised from time to time.

GCSE2.2

In particular, an awarding organisation must ensure that the assessment strategy for a GCSE Qualification sets out how the awarding organisation intends to secure, on an ongoing basis, compliance with its Conditions of Recognition in respect of the assessments for that qualification.

GCSE2.3

An awarding organisation must ensure that all assessments for a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, or proposes to make available, are designed, set, delivered and marked in compliance with its assessment strategy for that qualification.

GCSE2.4

An awarding organisation must –

- (a) keep under review its assessment strategy for a GCSE Qualification, and revise it where necessary, so as to satisfy itself that the assessment strategy meets at all times the requirements of Conditions GCSE2.1 and GCSE2.2,
- (b) review its assessment strategy for a GCSE Qualification promptly upon receiving a request from Ofqual to do so, and subsequently ensure that its assessment strategy complies with any requirements that Ofqual has communicated to it in writing, and
- (c) promptly notify Ofqual of any revisions made by it to any assessment strategy.

GCSE2.5

An awarding organisation must –

- (a) upon receiving a request from Ofqual to do so, demonstrate to Ofqual's satisfaction that it has complied with its assessment strategy for a GCSE Qualification in respect of any particular assessment for that qualification, or provide an explanation to Ofqual as to why it has not so complied, and
- (b) give effect to any recommendation that Ofqual may make in respect of its compliance with its assessment strategy.

Condition GCSE3: Specified levels of attainment

GCSE3.1

An awarding organisation must ensure that the specification for each GCSE Qualification which it makes available or proposes to make available sets out specified levels of attainment which comply with any requirements which may be published by Ofqual and revised from time to time.

Condition GCSE4: Assessment by Examination

GCSE4.1

An awarding organisation must ensure that every assessment for a GCSE Qualification which it makes available is an Assessment by Examination.

GCSE4.2

Condition GCSE4.1 does not apply in respect of a GCSE Qualification where a GCSE Subject Level Condition states that its application is excluded in respect of that qualification.

2022 Assessments

GCSE4.3

In respect of a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must comply with the terms of any written notice served by Ofqual requiring the awarding organisation to provide information in respect of the approach taken by the awarding organisation to –

- (a) in respect of an advance information qualification, publishing information in relation to the content that will be assessed in the Assessments by Examination to be taken for that qualification during –
 - (i) May, June and July 2022, and
 - (ii) as relevant, November 2022, and
- (b) in respect of a stimulus material qualification, providing Stimulus Materials different from, or in addition to, any provided in previous years for that qualification.

GCSE4.4

In respect of an Assessment by Examination to be taken during May, June, July or November 2022 for a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must –

- (a) in respect of an advance information qualification –
 - (i) on the date, or between the dates, specified to the awarding organisation in writing by Ofqual, publish information in relation to the content that will be assessed, and

- (ii) ensure that Assessment by Examination is consistent with that information, and
- (b) in respect of a stimulus material qualification –
 - (i) between 8 November 2021 and 12 November 2021, publish Stimulus Materials to be used in that Assessment by Examination which are different from, or in addition to, any provided in previous years for those qualifications, and
 - (ii) ensure that each Learner is provided with those Stimulus Materials at the time of the relevant Assessment by Examination.

GCSE4.5

In respect of a GCSE Qualification in English Language which it makes available, an awarding organisation must ensure that, where appropriate, the advance information referred to in Condition GCSE4.4(a)(i) differs between Assessments by Examination taken in –

- (a) May, June or July 2022, and
- (b) November 2022

GCSE4.6

An awarding organisation must ensure that in drafting the information referred to in Condition GCSE4.4(a)(i), and setting the Stimulus Materials referred to in Condition GCSE4.4(b)(i), it has regard to –

- (a) any guidance provided to it in writing by Ofqual from time to time, and
- (b) any principles published by Ofqual and revised from time to time.

- (ii) Mathematics.
- (iii) Single science (physics).

GCSE4.8

Condition GCSE25.3(a) does not apply in respect of Conditions GCSE4.3 to GCSE4.7.

GCSE4.9

To the extent that there is any inconsistency between a requirement of Conditions GCSE4.3 to GCSE4.7 and a requirement of a GCSE Subject Level Condition, such that an awarding organisation could not comply with both such requirements, the awarding organisation must comply with the requirement of Conditions GCSE4.3 to GCSE4.7 and is not obliged to comply with the requirement of the GCSE Subject Level Condition

GCSE4.10

In respect of a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must take all reasonable steps promptly to ensure that –

- (a) the attention of each Centre with which it has an agreement is drawn to the document published by Ofqual, and updated from time to time, entitled 'Guidance for schools, colleges and other exam centres on contingency arrangements for students entering GCSEs, AS and A levels, the Advanced Extension Award and Project qualifications in summer 2022' (reference Ofqual/21/6852/3), and

Condition GCSE6: Timing of assessments

GCSE6.1

An awarding organisation must ensure that in respect of each GCSE Qualification which it makes available each Learner completes, during the months of May and June in any single year, the Assessments by Examination to be taken for that qualification.

GCSE6.2

In respect of each GCSE Qualification which it makes available an awarding organisation must ensure that –

- (a) it issues a single result, or a single set of results, in respect of each Learner following completion by that Learner of the assessments to be taken for that qualification,
- (b) where confirmation of, or changes to, any mark for an assessment has been communicated to a Centre or a Learner in advance of the issue of that result or set of results, no further evidence generated by that Learner will be admissible as part of that assessment, and
- (c) where any result for a unit has been communicated to a Centre or a Learner in advance of the issue of that result or set of results, no further evidence generated by that Learner will be admissible as part of the assessments for that unit.

GCSE9.2

In setting the specified levels of attainment for a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, an awarding organisation must have regard to an appropriate range of qualitative and quantitative evidence.

Advance information principles

Principles in relation to advance information for Assessments by Examination in 2022

Condition GCSE4.6 allows us to specify principles in relation to information about the content which will be assessed for advance information qualifications for Assessments by Examination in 2022.

We set out below our principles for the purposes of Condition GCSE4.6:

- The advance information should not be so detailed that Learners are able to memorise answers to write in the exam.
- The advance information should not be so extensive or specific that it will damage a Learner's progression to higher level qualifications in the subject.
- It should still be possible to differentiate between Learners on the basis of their performance.

Standard setting requirements

Requirements in relation to the specified levels of attainment to be used for GCSE Qualifications

Condition GCSE3.1 allows us to specify requirements and guidance in relation to the setting of specified levels of attainment for GCSE Qualifications.

We set out below our requirements for the purposes of Condition GCSE3.1.

Specified levels of attainment for GCSE Qualifications other than double award qualifications

Except as provided for in the Subject Level Conditions and Requirements¹ for a GCSE Qualification which it makes available, other than a GCSE double award qualification, an awarding organisation must ensure that the specified levels of attainment take the form of a nine-point scale from 9 to 1, where 9 represents the highest level of attainment.

A Learner who does not meet the criteria to be awarded a specified level of attainment on the nine-point scale must be issued with a result of 'unclassified'.

Specified levels of attainment for GCSE double award qualifications

An awarding organisation must ensure that the specified levels of attainment for a GCSE double award qualification which it makes available take the form of a 17-point scale in the following format, with 9-9 representing the highest level of attainment –

9-9, 9-8, 8-8, 8-7, 7-7, 7-6, 6-6, 6-5, 5-5, 5-4, 4-4, 4-3, 3-3, 3-2, 2-2, 2-1, 1-1

A Learner who does not meet the criteria to be awarded a specified level of attainment on the above scale must be issued with a result of 'unclassified'.

¹ Currently different provision is made for the specified levels of attainment to be used in spoken language assessments for GCSE Qualifications in English Language.

Requirements for setting specified levels of attainment for GCSE Qualifications

Condition GCSE9.1(b) allows us to specify requirements and guidance in relation to the setting of specified levels of attainment for GCSE Qualifications.

We set out below our general requirements for the purposes of Condition GCSE9.1(b). We will publish additional specific requirements from time to time, including in relation to the setting of particular specified levels of attainment.

For ease of reference, the specified levels of attainment used in GCSE Qualifications are referred to below as 'grades'.

These requirements apply to assessments for GCSE Qualifications that are graded using the 9 to 1 or 9-9 to 1-1 scales.

Setting key grade boundaries for all GCSE Qualifications

For non-double award GCSE qualifications, the four key grade boundaries are:

- (a) 1/U
- (b) 4/3
- (c) 7/6
- (d) 9/8

For double award GCSE qualifications, the four key grade boundaries are:

- (a) 1-1/U
- (b) 4-4/4-3
- (c) 7-7/7-6
- (d) 9-9/9-8

An awarding organisation must set these key grade boundaries for each Component where they apply. In doing this, the awarding organisation must have regard to achieving suitable qualification level outcomes.

An awarding organisation must set key grade boundaries for each GCSE Qualification as a whole using the following method:

- (a) The boundary mark for each Component is scaled as necessary to reflect the intended weighting of that Component as detailed in the specification.

- (b) The resulting scaled Component boundary marks are added and the result is rounded to the nearest whole number (0.5 is rounded up).

In setting the key grade boundaries an awarding organisation must:

- (a) in the first year in which a GCSE Qualification is awarded, comply with any specific requirements that Ofqual may set,
- (b) in compliance with Condition H3.1, in the second and subsequent years of awarding, set each key grade boundary so as to ensure consistency with the standard set for the same grade boundary in the first year in which the qualification is awarded, and
- (c) without prejudice to the requirements in paragraphs 5(a) and 5(b), have regard to achieving suitable qualification level outcomes.

Setting remaining grade boundaries for non-double award GCSE Qualifications

After setting the key grade boundaries as outlined above, an awarding organisation must set the 8/7, 6/5, 5/4, 3/2 and 2/1 qualification grade boundaries as follows. Where there is a remainder of one or more marks, one extra mark is added in turn to successive grade intervals, starting with the highest grade interval:

- (a) The 8/7 boundary must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 9/8 and 7/6 boundaries by two.
- (b) For non-tiered qualifications and at higher tier in tiered qualifications, the 6/5 and 5/4 boundaries must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 7/6 and 4/3 boundaries by three.
- (c) The 3/2 and 2/1 boundaries must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 4/3 and 1/U boundaries by three.
- (d) At foundation tier in tiered qualifications, the 5/4 boundary is provisionally set at the same number of marks above the 4/3 boundary as the 4/3 boundary is above the 3/2 boundary. The 5/4 boundary is adjusted as necessary using statistical and technical evidence to align with the standard of grade 5 at the higher tier.
- (e) In a tiered GCSE qualification, the 3/U boundary on the higher tier is provisionally set by subtracting half the mark interval between the 5/4 and 4/3 boundaries (rounding up half marks) from the 4/3 boundary. Where a review of statistical and technical evidence leads the awarding organisation to judge that the 3/U boundary should be set at a different mark, consideration must be given to moving the grade 3/U boundary, and the reasons for this must be recorded.

Setting remaining grade boundaries for double award GCSE qualifications

After setting the key grade boundaries as outlined above, an awarding organisation must set the remaining qualification grade boundaries as follows. Where there is a remainder of one or more marks, one extra mark is added in turn to successive grade intervals, starting with the highest grade interval:

- (a) The 9-8/8-8, 8-8/8-7 and 8-7/7-7 grade boundaries must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 9-9/9-8 and 7-7/7-6 boundaries by four.
- (b) For non-tiered qualifications and at higher tier in tiered qualifications, the 7-6/6-6, 6-6/6-5, 6-5/5-5, 5-5/5-4 and 5-4/4-4 grade boundaries must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 7-7/7-6 and 4-4/4-3 boundaries by six.
- (c) The 4-3/3-3, 3-3/3-2, 3-2/2-2, 2-2/2-1 and 2-1/1-1 grade boundaries must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 4-4/4-3 and 1-1/U boundaries by six.
- (d) At foundation tier in tiered qualifications, the 5-5/5-4 boundary is provisionally set at the same number of marks above the 4-4/4-3 boundary as the 4-4/4-3 boundary is above the 3-3/3-2 boundary. The 5-5/5-4 boundary is adjusted as necessary using statistical and technical evidence to align with the standard of grade 5-5 at the higher tier. The 5-4/4-4 boundary must be set by dividing the mark interval between the 5-5/5-4 and 4-4/4-3 boundaries by two.
- (e) In a tiered GCSE double award qualification, the 4-3/U boundary on the higher tier is provisionally set by subtracting half the mark interval between the 5-4/4-4 and 4-4/4-3 boundaries (rounding up half marks) from the 4-4/4-3 boundary. Where a review of statistical and technical evidence leads the awarding organisation to judge that the 4-3/U boundary should be set at a different mark, consideration must be given to moving the grade 4-3/U boundary, and the reasons for this must be recorded.

Carrying forward non-examination Component marks

So long as the requirements in Condition E10.1 are met, an awarding organisation may permit a Learner to carry forward his or her mark/moderated mark (scaled as appropriate) for an assessment which is not an Assessment by Examination from a previous attempt at the same GCSE Qualification awarded by the awarding organisation.

Requirements for key dates

Reviews of marking, moderation, and appeals: requirements for key dates for GCSE Qualifications

We set out below the requirements which an awarding organisation must comply with when it specifies deadlines for requesting reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals. These requirements are published under Conditions GCSE14.3(b), GCSE17.3(b) and GCSE18.4(b) and apply to all GCSE Qualifications (graded from 9 to 1).

Awarding organisations are no longer required to set deadline dates for Learners/Centres to request reviews of marking, reviews of Moderation and appeals. In choosing to set any deadlines, an awarding organisation must comply with the requirements set out below and with all other requirements in its Conditions of Recognition.

In particular, the requirements set out below must be read and complied with in conjunction with the GCSE Qualification Level Conditions (which set out further requirements in relation to an awarding organisation's arrangements).

The requirements set out below align with the GCSE Qualification Level Conditions which are in effect. Some relevant GCSE Qualification Level Conditions have not yet come into effect and there are currently some transitional provisions in effect. We will keep the requirements set out below under review as any changes are made.

Requirements for key dates for assessments other than assessments which are marked by a Centre²

An awarding organisation must ensure that the requirements in the table below are met in each case where the assessment is not marked by a Centre. The table sets out the minimum timeframe within which the awarding organisation must allow a review/appeal to be requested. Provided a review/appeal is allowed to be requested in that timeframe, an awarding organisation is permitted to also provide an 'accelerated service' (for example, where requests for reviews provided by an earlier date will be processed more quickly).

² The footnotes in the table are for information only.
